Introduction

All praise and thanks are for Allah, the Greatest, alone. We praise Him, seek His help, and ask for His forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allah from the evil of ourselves and from the evil of our actions. Whoever Allah guides, no one can misguide and whoever He allows to go astray, there is no one who can guide. I bear witness that there is no one worthy of worship except Allah alone, without partners, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger.

Why do we study Tawheed?

Allah has created us because of it

Allah does not accept any deeds without it.

No one enters Paradise except a monotheist.

It causes good deeds to increase

It is a means to expiating sins.

It leads to constant safety, guidance, and sweetness of faith.

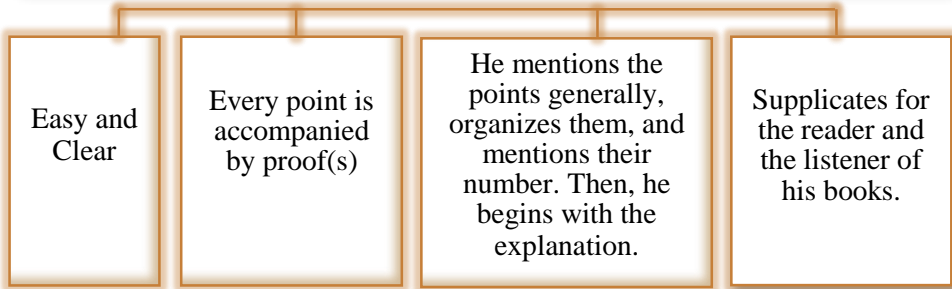

It is a means to attain tranquillity

It is a means for the intercession of the Prophet- may Allah praise him amongst the angels and send him peace.

Why study this book first?

Our righteous predecessors and scholars of Islam began with this blessed book due to the great benefits it contains. As a result, it has become the main book by which a student of Islam begins his journey and builds upon it the rest of the Islamic knowledge. We follow the path of our scholars so we may reach the rank they have reached in knowledge. Moreover, this book is extremely important for the common Muslim due to what it contains of the great foundations which is a must to believe in with certainty; without any doubt.

The Author's books are distinguished by the following:

What are the Three Fundamental Principles?

In summary, they are the Three Questions of the Grave.

What are the benefits of studying the Three Fundamental Principles?

If you study the three fundamental principles, act upon them, teach them, and observe patience, you will answer the questions of the grave –by the permission of Allah-.

This book is divided into five parts:

The Four Important
Points
(Soorah Asr).

The Three Important
Points
(Categories
of Tawheed).

The Importance of studying
Tawheed.

The three Fundamenta
l Principles (Questions of the Grave).

Conclusion

1. The Four Important Points

2. The Three Important Points

3. The importance of studying Tawheed

The answer to the question: Why do we study Tawheed?

4. The Three Fundamental Principles

In summary, they are the Three Questions of the Grave.

5. Conclusion

It begins from the saying of the author “After people die, they will be resurrected...” to the end of the book.

Firstly, the Four Important Points

"In the Name of Allah the Entirely Merciful, the Especially Merciful (1).

Know –may Allah have mercy on you- (2) that it is a must upon us to study four matters: The first one: Knowledge. It is knowledge of: Allah, His Prophet, and the religion of Islam with proof. The second: Acting upon it (3)".

(1) The reason the author begins with the Name of Allah:

Following the example of the Book of Allah as well as the Prophets – peace be upon them-.

Following the example of the righteous predecessors from the scholars of Islam; they would begin their books in the Name of Allah Seeking blessings or increase in goodness from the blessed Name of Allah.

(2) Habitually, the author begins by supplicating for the student of Islamic knowledge and asks Allah to have mercy on them. This shows:

1. The mercy of the scholars of the Sunnah toward their students.

2. Islam, in its origin, is built upon mercy.

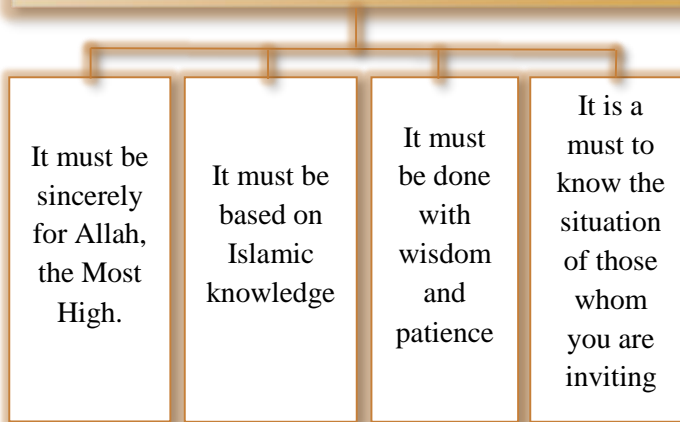

Knowledge is knowing the truth with proof: It is the opposite of ignorance.

(3) The connection between Knowledge and Actions: Some of the scholars have said: Knowledge calls for action; it's either responded to or otherwise, it leaves. Thus, there is no benefit possessing knowledge while not acting upon it. Rather, if a person seeks knowledge, it is a must to act upon it; otherwise, one would be like the Jews. They have knowledge; however, they do not act upon it. Allah informs us that «they recognise him as they recognise their sons» (Qur'an 2:146). The first whom the fire will be kindled are three kinds of people and from them is a scholar who has sought knowledge and yet did not act upon it. As the poet said:

'And the scholar who does not act upon his knowledge will be punished before the idol worshiper'.

Inviting to Allah has conditions:

Thirdly,
Inviting to it.

The proof for these conditions:

«Say, 'This is my way. I invite to Allah upon insight; I and those who follow me. Exalted is Allah, and I am not of those who worship others with Him» (Qur'an 12:108).

«Say, 'This is my way» That which is being pointed at is everything the Messenger came with from the legislation; Qur'an and authentic Hadeeth.

«I invite to Allah» A person who invites to Allah is the sincere one who only wishes to connect the people to their Creator.

«upon insight» meaning with knowledge, and it includes knowledge of: the legislation and those being invited.

As if the author -may Allah have mercy upon him- is saying: 'If you study and do righteous actions, it becomes obligatory upon you to be upon the path of the Prophet and his companions as Allah says: «Say: 'This is my way. I call to Allah upon insight; I and those who follow me'». Thus, it is a must to teach.

The fourth: patience upon the harms (1). The proof is the saying of The Most High:

«In the name of Allah The Entirely Merciful The Especially Merciful. By the time, Mankind are certainly in loss. Except those who believe, do righteous deeds, advise one another to the truth, and advise one another with patience» (Qur'an 103:1-3).

(1) After teaching and inviting others, the author mentions patience. As if he is saying to you: 'the one who takes this path will come across hardships just like the Prophets and Messengers –peace be upon them- did, so it is a must to observe patience.

Patience

Linguistically:
Forbearance

In Islam: Forbearance to do certain things and stay away from some.

Ibn Qayyim (691- 751H) -may Allah have mercy on him- has divided patience into three categories:

Patience upon the obedience of Allah so it is carried out; such as, patience to pray.

Patience to stay away from the disobedience of Allah so it is abandoned; such as, the major sins.

Patience with what Allah allows to befall you from the hardships; for example, sickness.

(2) After mentioning the four principles the author quotes the proof from the Qur'an; Surat Al-Asr. The author always follows the points with proof.

Why?

To teach the student to be a follower of the proof and not a blind follower of opinions.

So, one knows the proofs when advising those who oppose this belief.

To train the student how to correctly extract the rulings from the proofs based on established principles.

(1) The intent of Imam Shaafi'ee (150-204H) -may Allah have mercy on him- is that this soorah itself is sufficient to establish the proof upon the slaves of Allah so they study, act upon it, teach others, and observe patience.

What about the rest of the soorahs of the Qur'an?! The entire Qur'an is full of proofs.

(2) Imam Bukharee (194-256H) began one of the chapters in his book "Sahih Bukharee" by the title or heading: "Chapter: Knowledge precedes speech and action" and mentioned the proof for it. Thus, it is a must to study before speaking or doing any action. It is not correct to do actions without knowledge or otherwise one would be imitating the Christians.

Shaafi'ee -may Allah have mercy on him- said: "If Allah did not reveal a proof to His slaves except this chapter (soorah), it would have been enough for them" (1).

Bukharee -may Allah have mercy on him- said: "Chapter: Knowledge precedes speech and actions and the proof is the saying of Allah: «Know that no one is worthy of worship except Him and seek forgiveness for your sins». Thus, he mentions knowledge before speech and action" (2).

Secondly, The Three Important Points

Know, may Allah have mercy on you, it is obligatory upon every Muslim man and woman to study these three points and to act upon them (1):

(1) The author begins this section by supplicating for the student/reader.

The author supplicates for the student in this book three times; to begin the Four Important Points, the Three Important Points, and also when he says "Know, may Allah guide you to His obedience that Hanifiyyah is the way of Ibraheem". Before mentioning the four important points, the three important points as well as when he say: Know, may Allaah guide you to His Obedience that Hanifiyyah is the way of Ibraheem.

Intro to the Three Important Points

Tawheed

Linguistically: To single something out.

In Islam: To single out Allah with that which is specific to Him from his Lordship, Worship, and His Names and Attributes.

Tawheed has three categories:

Tawheed of Lordship: To single out Allah with His actions or to say that He is the only Creator, Sustainer, and the Disposer of all affairs

Tawheed of Worship: To single out Allah with all worship.

Tawheed of the Names and Attributes of Allah: To single out Allah with that which He has named and described Himself with in His Book or in the statements of His Messenger -may Allah praise him amongst the angels and send him peace -. This is done by affirming that which He has affirmed for Himself and negating that which He has negated for Himself: without distorting their meaning, denying them, describing them, or giving examples.

*The Names and Attributes of Allah are restricted only to that which has been narrated in the Qur'an or the Sunnah. This is done by affirming that which Allah has affirmed for Himself in His Book or his Messenger has affirmed for Him in his statements. Also by negating that which Allah has negated for Himself in His Book or His Messenger negated for Him. For example: «No slumber can overtake Him nor Sleep». This is done without distorting their meaning, denying them, explaining them, or giving examples.

The First Point: Allah has created us, provides for us, and He has not left us without a purpose; rather, He has sent to us a messenger. Whoever obeys him, will enter Paradise and whoever disobeys him, will enter the Fire. The proof is the saying of Allah: «We have certainly sent a messenger to be a witness over you, as We have sent a Messenger to the Pharaoh. However, the Pharaoh disobeyed the Messenger; so We seized him with a severe punishment» (Qur'an 73:15-16).

A summary of the Three Important Points

Tawheed of Lordship and Tawheed of the Names and Attributes.

Tawheed of Worship

Staying away from shirk and its people.

(1) In the first point, the author -may Allah have mercy on him- affirms Tawheed of Lordship and Tawheed of the Names and Attributes: "Allah has created us" so He is the Creator, "and provides for us" so He is the Provider, "and He has not left us purposeless" without orders and prohibitions, "rather He has sent us a Messenger".

The reason Allah has sent Messengers:

To establish the proof upon the creation: «We do not punish anyone until we send a Messenger» (Qur'an 17:15).

As a mercy: «We have not sent you except as a mercy to everything that exists» (Qur'an 21:107).

The Second Point: Allah is not pleased that anyone is worshipped with Him; not a close angel nor a sent Messenger. The proof is the saying of Allah: «Surely the mosques belong only to Allah, so do not make supplication to anyone along with Allah» (Qur'an 72:18).

The second point affirms the worship only for Allah, the Most High.

The author -may Allah have mercy on him- says: "Allah is not pleased that anyone is worshiped with Him". "Anyone" is indefinite so it includes everyone and everything; prophets, righteous people, jinn, angels, pious, or other than them whoever they may be .

The proof is the saying of Allah, the Most High: «Surely the mosques belong only to Allah, so do not make supplication to anyone along with Allah».

There are three opinions with regard to the meaning of 'Masaajid' and they could easily be reconciled:

The mosques which are built to worship Allah in them.

The body parts we prostrate with.

The entire earth; "The earth has been made for me a place of prayer and purification" (Bukharee).

In the third point the author clarifies staying away from shirk and its people.

Disassociating yourself from shirk and its people is done with:

Heart

Speech

Actions

1. Heart: We hate those who worship other than Allah and their celebrations; especially their shirk and innovations in the religion due to them associating partners in worship with Allah.

2. Speech: «I am absolutely free of that which you worship. "Say: 'O disbelievers, I do not worship that which you worship and you do not worship the One whom I worship. I will not worship that which you worship and you will not worship that which I worship. For you is your religion and for me is mine»" (Qur'an 109).

3. Actions: By not participating in their acts of worship, celebrations, etc.

The Third Point: Whoever obeys the Messenger and singles Allah out with all worship, it is not permissible for him to have loyalty to those who oppose Allah and His Messenger; even if they are the closest relatives. The proof is the saying of Allah the Most High: «You (O Messenger) will not find anyone who believes in Allah and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allah and His Messenger (Muhammad), even if they are their fathers, sons, brothers, or their kindred (people). For such He has written Eemaan in their hearts, and strengthened them with Rooh (proofs, light and true guidance) from Himself. And He will admit them to Gardens under which rivers flow to live in it forever. Allah is pleased with them, and they with Him. They are the Party of Allah. Verily, it is the Party of Allah that will be successful» (Qur'an 58:22).

Thirdly, the Importance of Studying Tawheed

Know - may Allah direct you to obey Him- that certainly the true religion, the way of Ibraheem, is to worship Allah alone; making the Religion sincerely for Him. Allah has ordered everyone with this and He has created them because of it. Allah, The Most High, says: «I did not create jinn and Mankind except to worship Me» (Qur'an 51:56). The meaning of «worship» is to single Allah out with all worship. The greatest of that which Allah has ordered with is Tawheed; which is to single out Allah with all worship (3). The worst of that which He forbade is shirk; which is to worship others along with Him or besides Him. The proof is His saying, The Most High: «Worship Allah and do not associate anything with Him»

Haneef

Linguistically:

To lean toward something.

In Islam: Al

Haneefeeyyah: is a nation which is far from shirk and upon sincerity, Tawheed, and Imaan.

«(Qaanitan) one who does a lot of good deeds continuously for the sake of Allah Haneefan» (Qur'an 16:120) meaning heading towards Allah and away from shirk since Haneef is the one who is always upon Tawheed and far away from shirk.

(3) The author clarifies the reason why we study Tawheed and we have mentioned its importance previously.

Definition of Tawheed

Linguistically: To single something out

Islamically: To single out Allah in His Lordship, Worship, and Names and Attributes

The author says that: “the meaning of «to worship Me» is 'to single Me out with worship'. This is the saying of Ibn Abbas (3 years before hijra- 67 or 68H) -may Allah be pleased with him- when he said: “Every time the word 'worship' is used in the Qur'an it means Tawheed” such as «Worship Allah» means: single Him out with worship, «O people worship your Lord» means: O people single out your Lord with worship.

Fourthly, the Three Fundamental Principles

(1) The author -may Allah have mercy on him- began by mentioning the three principles which are the three questions each person will be asked in the grave. He draws the attention of the reader by asking a question then he answers it.

(2) The author -may Allah have mercy on him- clarifies the first principle that the Lord, the One deserving of worship is Allah, the Perfect and the Most High. Then he mentions the proof for it which is the saying of Allah: «All the praise and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of everything which He has created». The Lord is the One who should be worshipped.

«All the praise and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of everything which He has created»

This verse contains the three categories of Tawheed:

«All the praise and thanks ...» affirms
Tawheed of Worship.

«be to Allah...» affirms Tawheed
of the Names and Attributes.

«The Lord...»
affirms Tawheed
of Lordship.

If it is said to you: What are the three fundamental principles obligatory upon the people to know? Say: The slave of Allah must know his Lord, his religion, and his Prophet Muhammad -may Allah praise him and send him peace- (1).

If it said to you: Who is your Lord? Say: My Lord is Allah, the one who has nurtured me and all of His creations with His favors and blessings. He is the One whom I worship and there is no other whom I worship besides Him. The proof is His, the Most High, saying: «All the praise and thanks be to Allah, the Lord of everything which He has created» (Qur'an 1:1) (2). Everything besides Allah is created and I am one of those creations (3).

(3) It means that everything other than Allah is created and if I am created then it is a must upon me to thank the Creator, the Perfect and the Most High.

If it is said to you: 'How did you come to know your Creator?' Say: 'Through His signs and His creations. From His signs are the night and the day, the sun and the moon. From His creations are the seven heavens, the seven earths, everything within them, and everything between them. The proof is His, The Most High, saying: «And from His signs are the night, the day, the sun, and the moon. Do not prostrate to the sun or to the moon, but prostrate to Allah who created them, if you truly worship Him» (Qur'an 41:37). And also His, The Most High's, saying: «Your Lord is certainly Allah who has created the heavens and the earth in six days, and then He rose over the Throne. He causes the night to cover the day which follows with haste; and the sun, the moon, and the stars subjected to His command. Certainly, the creation and commandment are His alone. Blessed is Allah the Lord of all creation» (Qur'an 7:54) (1).

The Lord is the One who should be worshiped. The proof is His, the Most High, saying: «O Mankind, worship your Lord, who has created you and those before you so that you may become pious. The One that has made the earth a resting place for you, the sky as a canopy, has sent down rain from the sky, and brought forth therewith fruits as a provision for you. Then do not set up rivals unto Allah (in worship) while you know (that He alone has the right to be worshiped)» (Qur'an 2:22) (2).

Ibn Katheer (701-774H) -may Allah have mercy on him- said: "Only the One who has created these things deserves to be worshiped" (3).

(1) The author mentions some signs in the universe and creations which prove the existence of Allah and affirm that there is no Lord, no Creator, and no one worthy of being worshipped except Allah alone. Then he mentions the proofs from the Qur'an. Every created object is a sign which proves the existence of Allah, the Perfect and the Most High. However, the author differentiates between the signs in the universe and the created objects since the signs go through changes such as the night and the day. That which changes is a stronger proof than that which does not change.

(2) Some of the scholars said regarding this verse in the second chapter of the Qur'an: This verse mentions the first call in the Qur'an «O Mankind», the first order «worship» meaning single out with worship, and the first prohibition «So do not worship others with Allah while you know» is prohibition against shirk.

(3) The one who is singled out with Lordship must be singled out with worship.

The author follows the saying of Ibn Katheer with a number of acts of worship of the heart and body while mentioning the proofs from the Qur'an and the Sunnah for each one of them.

Supplication is divided into:

Supplication of Worship:

It is an indirect supplication; such as prayer, fasting, and hajj.

Supplication for a need: It is a direct supplication such as saying: 'forgive me', 'have mercy on me', etc.

Directing it to other than Allah is Major Shirk.

Its ruling requires explanation. It is divided into two categories.

The types of worship that Allah commanded, such as Islaam, Imaan, and Ihsaan. Moreover, Supplication (Du'aa), Fear (Khawf), Hope (Rajaa), Reliance (Tawakkul), Longing (Raghbah), and Dreading (Rahbah), Submissiveness (Khushoo'), Awe (Khashyah), Repentance (Inaabah), Seeking Assistance (Isti'aanah), Seeking Refuge (Isti'aadhah), Asking for Help (Istighaathah), Offering Sacrifices (Dhabah), Making Oaths (Nadhar) and all of the other types of worship that Allah commanded – all of these belong to Allah, alone. The proof for this is Allah's saying: «And the masaajid belong to Allah, so do not call unto anyone along with Allah.» (Qur'an 72:18).

So whoever directs any part of these acts of worship to other than Allah, then he is a polytheist, disbeliever. The proof of this is Allah's saying: «And whoever calls unto another gods besides Allah without any proof, his reckoning is only with his Lord. Surely, the disbelievers will not be successful» (Qur'an 23:117). Also the noble Hadeeth: "Du'a is worship" (Tirmidhee "Authentic" Albani). The proof is the saying of Allah: And your Lord said: «Call upon Me and I will respond to you. Those who scorn My worship will surely enter Hell in humiliation!» (Qur'an 40:60).

Supplication for a Need Is of Two Types:

That which only Allah is able to grant. Directing it to other than Allah is Major Shirk

That which humans are capable of. It is permissible with four conditions:

The one who is being asked is alive which it disqualifies the dead.

The one being asked is able to be reached through one of the means of communication. This disqualifies the one who cannot be contacted.

The one being asked is capable. This disqualifies the one who is not capable.

One must believe that the one who is being asked is only a means; cannot bring about benefit or repel harm himself.

Believing that the one whom s/he is asking has the ability to bring about benefit or repel harm himself then this is Shirk.

Note:

We study the ruling on certain actions. As for the ruling on the one who does those actions then that needs the establishing of the proof upon the individual and clarifying their doubts.

The scholars are the ones who can correctly determine if a person is a believer or a disbeliever.

People are divided into three types with respect to their beliefs regarding the means:

Some believe that only what Allah has made a means can be used as a means; legislated or perceptible means. This is correct.

Others believe in means which Allah has not made a means. This is Minor Shirk.

The third group believes that the means itself has an effect; brings about benefit or repels harm. This is Major Shirk.

Legislated Means

Such as Ruqyah (Qur'an and Sunnah). This is permissible since it is a means which Allah has legislated in order to remove illnesses.

Perceptible Means

Medication; Allah has made it a means for the healing.

The hadeeth “Du'a (supplication) is the core of worship” is weak. However, the authentic hadeeth is “Du'a (supplication) is worship”.

How is Du'a worship?

The verse «Your Lord has said 'ask Me I will respond to you. Those who arrogantly do not worship me, will enter the fire in humiliation» explains this point. His saying «worship Me» shows that Du'a is worship.

The proof for Fear (khawf) is Allah's saying: «Do not fear them but fear Me, if you are believers» Qur'an (3:175) (1).

The proof for Hope (Rajaa) is Allah's saying: «So whoever hopes to meet his Lord, then let him perform righteous deeds, and not associate anyone in worship with his Lord» Qur'an (18:110) (2).

(1) Fear: is a feeling when one is faced with that which may harm or destroy him.

Allah has prohibited us from fearing the protectors of Satan and has ordered us to fear Him alone.

Fear is of three types:

This fear is a form of worship, glorification and inner fear

Natural fear

Prohibited fear

(2) Hope: Desiring something.

A hope which is accompanied with humbleness and submission should be only for Allah; directing it to other than Allah is Major Shirk.

The praiseworthy hope is only for the one who does acts of obedience for Allah and hopes for the reward, or repents from sins and hopes for it to be accepted. Hoping without doing good deeds is deception and unpraiseworthy hope.

It is the fear of the worshiper for the one s/he worships. It is done with submission to, humbling one's self for, and glorifying the one worshipped. Allah must be feared in this manner and it is Major Shirk if done for other than Allah.

Such as fire, the enemy, predators ... etc. This is permissible.

Losing hope in the mercy of Allah or obeying a created being while disobeying the Creator.

This is prohibited

(1) The meaning of Tawakkul

Linguistically

To rely upon something or someone

In Islam

It is true dependence upon Allah, confidence in Him, whilst taking the necessary means.

Three must be present for Tawakkul to be correct:

Truthfulness:

Be truthful in your dependence upon Allah.

Confidence that Allah will fulfil what He has promised.

Taking the necessary lawful means

The proof for Reliance (Tawakkul) is Allah's saying: «And upon Allah alone put your reliance if you are truly believers» Qur'an (5:23), and His saying: «And whoever relies upon Allah, then He is sufficient for him» Qur'an (65:3) (1).

The proof for Longing (Raghbah) (2), Dreading (Rahbah) (3), and Submissiveness (Khushoo') (4) is Allah's saying: «Verily, they used to rush to do good deeds, and they would call on Us, longing (for His reward) and dreading (His punishment), and they used to humble themselves submissively before Us» Qur'an (21: 90).

(2) Longing: Loving to reach something which one desires.

(3) Dreading: A fear which leads one to flee from the object s/he fears.

(4) Submissiveness: Humbling oneself to the Greatness of Allah by submitting to his universal and legislative decree.

It is a must for the 'traveler to Allah', the Perfect and the Most High, to combine between fear and hope. It is not correct to over emphasize one of them and thus be destroyed. Fear and hope should both be present like the two wings of a bird.

The proof for Awe (khashyah) is Allah's saying: «So do not be in awe of them, but have awe of Me» (Qur'an 2:150) (1). And the proof for Repentance (Inaabah) is Allah's saying: «And turn to your Lord in repentance and submit to Him (as Muslims)» (Qur'an 39:54) (2). The proof for Seeking Assistance (Isti'aanah) is Allah's saying: «You alone we worship and You alone we ask for help» (Qur'an 1:5). Likewise, the hadeeth, «If you ask for help, then ask help from Allah» (Tirmidhee) (3). The proof for Seeking Refuge (Isti'aadhah) is Allah's saying: «Say: I seek refuge with the Lord of the Daybreak» (Qur'an 113:1) and «Say: I seek refuge with the Lord of the people» (Qur'an 114 : 1) (4). The proof for Asking for Help (Istighaathah) is Allah's saying: «And remember when you sought help from your Lord and He responded to you...» (Qur'an 8:9) (5). The proof for offering sacrifices (Dhabah) is Allah's saying: «Say: Verily my prayer, my sacrificial offerings, my living and my dying are for Allah, Lord of the Worlds. He has no partner. And with this I have been commanded, and I am the first of the Muslims» (Qur'an 6:162-163). Also from the Sunnah, «May Allah curse the one who offers a sacrifice to other than Allah» (Muslim) (6).

(1) Awe: It is a fear based on knowing the greatness of the One being feared and His complete supremacy.

(2) Returning to Allah by obeying Him and staying away from sins. This means to submit to Allah since we are slaves and a slave must submit to his Master. "The Master is Allah" as the Prophet said.

(3) Seeking Assistance: This verse indicates a method of constraint (hasr) since the object of the sentence, even though usually comes after the verb in the Arabic language, is mentioned before the verb, affirming it for whom it is mentioned in the sentence and negating it for anything else. Therefore, it is as if the person has said, "We do not worship anything but you. We do not turn to anyone else for help except You."

(4) Seeking Refuge: seeking protection from something disliked.

(5) Asking for Help: To be rescued from a difficulty or disaster.

Seeking assistance, seeking refuge, asking for help, and asking for intercession can be sought from a human being as long as s/he is able to while fulfilling the four conditions; alive, present, able, and a means.

(6) Offering Sacrifices: Causing it to die by spilling its blood in a prescribed manner.

Note: There are more details about sacrificing in “The Book of Tawheed”.

Note: Oaths are of various types and have conditions and expiations as explained in “The Book of Tawheed”.

The author mentions these acts of worship as examples; not to restrict the acts of worship only to these. There are many other acts of worship which are not mentioned. Thus, whoever directs these or other than these acts of worship to other than Allah has fallen into polytheism. Translator's note: Worship is everything which Allah loves.

The Second Fundamental Principle:

Knowing the Religion of Islam, based on evidences. This (i.e. Islam) means submitting to Allah by way of Tawheed, surrendering one's (full) obedience to Him, and absolving oneself from Shirk and its people. They are three levels: Islam, Imaan, and Ihsaan, each level consisting of its own pillars. The First Level: Islam (1). The pillars of Islam are five: The testimony that there is no deity that has the right to be worshipped except Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah (2); Establishing the prayer; Giving the Zakaat; Fasting in Ramadhan; Performing Hajj to Allah's Sacred House.

(1) The author begins the second foundation, which is Knowing the Religion, by defining Islam:

The First Level: Islam

It means submitting to Allah by way of Tawheed, surrendering one's full obedience to Him, and staying away from Shirk and its people.

The definition of Islam entails submitting all of the affairs to Allah since we are slaves and the slave must submit to the Master. The Master is Allah as we are informed by the Prophet.

Then he has divided the religion into three levels:

(2) The pillars of Islam are five; first of them: The Shahaadah (No god should be worshiped except Allah).

The author mentions the proof for the testimony of faith and clarifies that its meaning is: No god should be worshipped except Allah.

It is a must for the testimony of sincerity to comprise of

Negation

Affirmation

The negation is “No god should be worshipped” and the affirmation is “except Allah”.

This sentence construction shows restriction and affirmation; it restricts and affirms the worship for Allah alone and negates it for other than Him.

For this reason, the author said: An explanation of this, which will clarify it further, is found in Allah’s saying: «And remember when Ibraheem said to his father and to his people: Verily, I am free from all that you worship – except for He who created Me...».

Ibraheem’s saying «free from all that you worship» is the meaning of “no god should be worshipped”.

«except for He who created Me» meaning “except Allah”.

The proof for the testimony of Faith is Allah’s saying: «Allah bears witness that there is no deity that has the right to be worshipped except Him, and so do the angels and those who possess knowledge. He is always maintaining His creation with justice. None has the right to be worshipped but Him- the All-Mighty, the All-Wise» Qur'an (3:18). The meaning of it (i.e. the testimony of Faith) is: There is no one that has the right to be worshipped except Allah, alone. 'Laa ilaaha' negates everything that is worshipped besides Allah, while 'illa Allah' affirms the worship for only Allah, free from any partner being mixed in with His worship, just as there is no partner mixed in with His Dominion. An explanation of this, which will clarify it further, is found in Allah’s saying: «And remember when Ibraheem said to his father and to his people: 'Verily, I am free from all that you worship – except for He who created Me, and verily He will guide me.' And He made it a statement that will endure among his offspring that they may turn back to» (Qur'an 43: 26-27).

Also His saying: «Say, 'O People of the Scripture, come to a word that is the same between us and you - that we will not worship except Allah; will not associate anything with Him and not take one another as lords instead of Allah'. But if they turn away, then say, 'Bear witness that we are Muslims [submitting to Him]» (Qur'an 3:64) (1).

If it is said: The meaning of the testimony 'La ilaha ila Allah' is: There is no one who is worshiped (god) except Allah, then this is incorrect since s/he is approving of everything which is worshipped besides Allah. However, when it is clarified with the addition 'rightfully', this shows that s/he disbelieves in everything which is worshipped beside Allah and that nothing deserves to be worshipped except Allah.

If it is said: The meaning of “La ilaha ila Allah” is: There is no Creator except Allah. Even though this statement is correct, it is not the meaning of “La ilaha ila Allah”. This is the Oneness of Lordship, which was affirmed even by the idol worshippers whom the Prophet was sent to; however, this did not enter them into Islam.

(1) «Say, 'O People of the Scripture, come to a word that is the same between us and you...». This verse is a proof for the falsehood of the invitation for the “Unity of Religions”.

(1) Allah has emphasized this verse with three different emphatic devices: The 'understood' oath, the Arabic letter 'Laam', and the 'Qad'.

(2) These four are a must for every Muslim in order to perfect their testimony.

The proof for the testimony: 'Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah' is the saying of Allah: «There has certainly come to you a Messenger from among yourselves. Grievous to him is what you suffer; he is concerned over you and to the believers he is kind and merciful» (Qur'an 9:128) (1).

The meaning of this testimony is: Obeying his orders, believing that which he has said, stay far away from his prohibitions, and that Allah is only worshipped with that which he has legislated (2).

The meaning of 'Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah': He is a slave and thus he should not be worshipped and a Messenger who should not be rejected, which means:

We must obey him in everything he has ordered with, since he only conveys from Allah.

Believing everything he has informed us of: He is truthful and believed.

Staying far away from his prohibitions: You must put everything he has prohibited on one side and you stand far away on the other side.

We do not worship Allah except the way he has worshiped Allah: This is a proof against the innovators in the religion of Allah.

The proof for Prayer(1), Zakaat and the explanation of Tawheed is Allah's saying: «And they were not commanded except to worship Allah, making the religion (i.e. worship) solely for Him alone, to perform the prayer, and give the Zakaat. That is the right Religion» (Qur'an 98: 5) (2).

The proof for Fasting is Allah's saying: «O you who believe, fasting is prescribed for you just as it was prescribed for those before you, in order that you may acquire Taqwaa (obey Allah)» (Qur'an 2: 183) (3).

The proof for Hajj is Allah's saying: «Hajj (pilgrimage) to the House (Ka'bah) is a duty that people owe to Allah; those who are able to do it. And whoever disbelieves (by denying Hajj), then surely Allah is not in need of any of His creation» (Qur'an 3: 97) (4).

(1) The second pillar: Prayer.

It is worshipping Allah with movements and statements, beginning with 'Takbir' ('Allahu Akbar'-'Allah is the Greatest') and ending with 'Tasleem' (greetings of peace). It is a great pillar of the religion. Its obligation was conveyed to the Prophet directly from Allah when the Prophet ascended to the heavens.

(2) The third pillar: Obligatory Charity.

Linguistically it means growth and purification.

It is of two types: Purification of the body and purification of the wealth.

(3) The fourth pillar: Fasting.

Linguistically: To abstain.

Islamically: To worship Allah by abstaining from that which breaks the fast, with a sincere intention from the beginning of Fajr to sunset. It is one of the best acts of worship, since the three types of patience are all present in it. Also, what shows its great status is the fact that Allah has told us that He Himself will reward the fasting person.

(4) The fifth pillar: Hajj.

Linguistically: To direct one's intention toward something or someone.

Islamically: To worship Allah by performing the rites of Hajj according to the way of the Prophet –may Allah praise him and send him peace-. It is an obligation on every Muslim who is able to, once in a lifetime.

Second Level: Eemaan

Islamically: Eemaan is statements of the tongue, beliefs in the heart, and actions of the limbs; It increases with Obedience to Allah and it decreases by disobeying Him.

Therefore, Eemaan is composed of five things; if one of the five is not fulfilled then this is not considered Imaan according to Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah

What is the proof for these five conditions? The hadeeth, “The highest of them is saying La illaaha illa Allaah” this is a statement, “and the lowest of them is moving a harmful object from the road” this is an action of the limb, “and modesty is a branch from Imaan” this is an action of the heart .

It consists of more than seventy branches. The highest of them is saying La illaaha illa Allaah and the lowest of them is moving a harmful object from the road. And Hayaa [Modesty] is a branch of Imaan.

Its pillars are six: That you believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His Messengers, the Last Day, and that you believe in Al-Qadar (Divine Pre-Decree) – the good of it and the bad of it.

The proof for these six pillars is Allah's statement: «Righteousness (birr) is not that you turn your faces towards the east and the west (in prayer), but rather righteousness (birr) is (for) the one who believes in Allah, the Last Day, the Angels, the Books and the Prophets» (Qur'an, 2:177).

And the proof for Al-Qadar (Pre-Decree) is Allah's saying: «Verily, We have created all things with Qadar (divine pre-decree ordained for it)» (Qur'an 54: 49).

Allah's saying: «Which of you has had his Faith increased by it?» (Qur'an 9:124) proves that Imaan increases, and if it increases then surely it must decrease. It has been clearly mentioned from the Prophet –may Allah praise and send him peace- about the decrease in one's religion through his statement, “I haven't seen anyone more deficient in reason and religion...” (Bukharee and Muslim).

The Six Pillars of Eemaan

The First Pillar: Believing in Allah

Second: Belief in His angels.

Angels are from the invisible world. Allah has created them from light. They obey Allah and never disobey Him. They have souls «holy spirit» (Qur'an 2:87), a body «Who made the angels messengers with wings» (Qur'an 35:1), heart «So much so that when fear is banished from their (angel's) hearts» (Qur'an 34:23) and intellect «they (angels) say: 'What is it that you Lord has said?'» (Qur'an 34:23). They question and respond which proves that they have an intellect. We believe in them, their names (Jibreel, Meekaaeel, Israafeel, etc.), their duties (such as 'the carriers of the Throne'), and everything else we have been informed about them.

Third: Belief in the Books

We believe that they are from the Speech of Allah sent down to us and not created. Allah sent with every Messenger a book. We believe in those that Allah has informed us of by name, their narrations, and their rulings which have not been abrogated by the Qur'an, since the Qur'an abrogates what came before it from these Scriptures and it is Muhaiminan (trustworthy in highness and a witness) over them. (Al-Qur'an, At-Tawraah (The Torah of Prophet Moosaa), Al-Injeel (The Gospel of Prophet Eesaa), Az-Zaboor (The book of Prophet David), Suhoof Ibraheem and Moosaa (The Scriptures of Prophets Ibraheem and Moosaa).

Fourth: Belief in Messengers

We believe that they are all men and possess none of the characteristics of Lordship. Allah has chosen them, has sent down revelation to them, and has aided them with His verses and signs. We believe that they are slaves of Allah and should not be worshipped, messengers and should not be rejected, they have conveyed what has been entrusted upon them, they have advised their people, they have fulfilled their mission, and have struggled in the way of Allah. We believe in all of them, their names, their stories, and in the signs that Allah used to aid them with. The first Prophets is Aadam, the first Messenger is Nooh, and the seal of the Prophets is Muhammad –may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon them all-. All of the previous laws are abrogated by the law revealed to Muhammad ﷺ.

Fifth: Belief in the Last Day

Believing in everything that happens after death; the soul exiting the body, the Angels carrying it to the heavens and either the heavens will open or the gates of the heavens will be closed on him, then they will return it back to his body and s/he hears the footsteps of those burying him. Then the two angels will question, the punishment or reward of the grave, the resurrection, the account, the Siraat (the bridge), paradise or Hell Fire, the intercession, the believers seeing their Lord on the Day of Judgement and in Paradise as Allah wills, and Hawdh (River) of the Prophet –may Allah praise him and send him peace-. Thus, everything that will happen after death falls under the category of Belief in the Last Day.

Sixth: Belief in the Qadar (Consists of four matters)

Knowledge:

To believe that Allah is All-Knowing of everything and nothing is hidden from Him neither on Earth nor in the Heavens.

Writing:

Allah – Glorified is He – commanded the Pen to write everything that will happen until the Day of Judgement.

Will:

The slave has a will but his will cannot be executed except by the will of Allah, for whatever Allah wills comes to be, and whatever Allah does not will, will not come to pass.

Creation:

The slave of Allah is created and his actions follow him so they are created as well.

«Allah created you and that which you do» (Qur'an 37:96).

The Third Level: Ihsaaan
It is the highest level of the religion and it has one pillar under which branch two levels:

Worship of Mushaahada

(As if one sees Him) out of love, desiring, and yearning for that which is with Allah. For example: the worship of the Prophets and Messengers (peace be upon them). It is possible for other than them to reach this level as well.

Worship of Muraaqaba

(Of the one who knows that he's being observed). It is a worship out of fear and fleeing. A Muslim does not go outside of this circle.

The third level: Ihsaan. It has one pillar: “to worship Allah as if you see Him, since even though you do not see him, He certainly sees you” And the proof is His saying: «Truly, Allah is with those who keep their duty unto Him, and those who are Muhsinoon» (Qur'an 16:128). Also His saying: «And put your trust in the All-Mighty, the Most Merciful, who sees you (O Messenger) when you stand up (alone at night for prayers), and your movements among those who fall prostrate (along with you to Allah in the five compulsory congregational prayers). Verily! He, only He, is the All-Hearer, the All-Knower» (Qur'an 26:217-220). Likewise His saying: «Whatever you (O Messenger) may be doing, and whatever portion you may be reciting from the Qur'aan, - and whatever deed you people may be doing (good or evil), We are a Witness, when you are doing it.» (Qur'an 10:61).

Note:

This does not mean that the one who worships Allah in this manner does so only out of love and does not fear Him. However, in this level, the strongest urge that drives the slave of Allah to worship is the love of Allah -The Perfect, The Most High-. The Prophet—may Allah praise him and send him peace- said: “Shouldn't I be a thankful servant” (Bukharee and Muslim).

The proof from the Sunnah is the famous hadeeth of Jibreel narrated by 'Umar as he said: "One day while we were sitting with the Messenger of Allah, there appeared before us a man with extremely white clothes and extremely black hair. There were no signs of travel on him and none of us knew him. He sat in front of the Prophet and put his hands on his own thighs. He said: "O Muhammad, tell me about Islam". The Messenger of Allah said: "Islam is to testify that there is none worthy of worship except Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, to establish the prayers, to pay the zakat (charity), to fast (the month of) Ramadhaan, and to do the pilgrimage at the House if you have the means to do so." He said: "You are correct". We were amazed that he asks the question and then he corrects it. He said: "Tell me about Imaan". He responded, "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His messengers, the Last Day, and to believe in the divine decree, (both) the good and the evil". He said: "You are correct". He said: "Tell me about Ihsaan". He answered: "It is that you worship Allah as if you see Him. And even though you do not see Him, you know He certainly sees you". He said: "Tell me about (the time of) the Hour". He answered, "The one being asked does not know more than the one asking". He said: "Tell me about its signs". He answered: "The slave-girl will give birth to her master; and you will see the barefooted, scantily clothed, destitute shepherds competing in constructing high buildings". Then, he went away. I stayed for a long time. Then, he said: "O 'Umar, do you know who the questioner was?" I said: "Allah and His Messenger know best". He said: "It was (the Angel) Jibreel who came to teach you your religion" (Muslim).

This Hadeeth is a proof for the pillars of Islaam, Imaan, and Ihsaan. His statement "The one being asked does not know more than the one asking" is a proof that no one knows when the Day of Judgement will be except Allah.

His saying: "The slave-girl will give birth to her master" means:

Disobedience to parents increases

Slavery increases

Changing of roles (in the society)

A king has relations with his female slave and she gives birth to his son. Once the king dies, his son becomes the king. Thus, he becomes his mother's master

Benefits from Hadeeth of Jibreel

- (1) There are five things which have rights on the Student of Islamic knowledge: his or her self, teacher, the place he studies at, classmates, books, and the knowledge s/he has studied.

The right of himself: Since knowledge is worship, sincerity and following the Sunnah are a must. Be a follower of the early scholars of Islam, fear Allah with a true fear based on knowledge, know that Allah is watching you at all times, humble yourself and be careful of arrogance.

Be pleased and accept what you have been given and stay away from that which will not benefit you in the next life. Adorn yourself with the effects of knowledge, good manners which are acceptable to the people, boycott arrogance and feeling superior to your peers and others. Stay away from sittings and meetings which have no benefit, adorn yourself with gentleness, be firm upon the truth, and verify information and news before believing it. Have high ambitions, strong desire to seek knowledge, travel for knowledge, preserve the knowledge through writing, memorizing, etc. Preserve that which you memorize by acting upon it and revising it. Try to understand by extracting the branches of knowledge from its foundations, ask Allah for help, respect academic integrity, and be truthful.

The 'paradise' of the Student of Islamic Knowledge is 'I don't know' , don't waste time, seek general knowledge of various topics, read in Arabic carefully and correctly, eventually read bigger books such as Saheeh Bukharee, Muslim, etc.

Ask appropriate questions, listen carefully, understand the material, and then act upon it, and don't debate for the sake of debating; not for the sake of finding and accepting the truth. Review knowledge. Be with the Qur'aan, Sunnah, and their sciences. Study the important topics of every science.

Act upon the knowledge, flee from the love for leadership, fame, and the dunya; this worldly life.

Have bad thoughts about yourself and good thoughts about others.

Give the charity of knowledge; enjoin the good, forbid the evil, outweigh the benefits and the harms, spread the knowledge and love to benefit the people, use your status/position to intercede for the Muslims with good intercessions; to represent the truth and all that is good.

Be honourable, preserve knowledge, stay away from teaching and positions before you are qualified for that.

Hold an appropriate stance or position regarding the mistake of a scholar, and the difference of opinion among the scholars (Translator's Note: the mistake is not accepted when it becomes clear, however, the scholar's virtues remain and he is respected and never spoken ill of).

Repel doubts. Don't be part of groups and parties to love and hate for their sake.

His teacher's right: People fall in three groups regarding this; two extremes and one moderation. We will study –if Allah wills– that the first shirk took place on earth is due to exaggerating on the status of the righteous, so it is a must that we remain moderate with the righteous; don't exaggerate by giving them rights they do not deserve nor fall short in giving them the rights which are due to them.

The right of the place in which he studies.

The right of his classmates: Allah, the Perfect and the Most High, says: «You are the best nation chosen for Mankind» and the Prophet –may Allah praise him and send him peace– said: “None of you truly believes until he loves for his brother what he loves for himself”.

The right of the book: To preserve the book and take care of it. These books are a blessing from Allah, so it is a must to preserve them.

The right of the knowledge: to study it thoroughly and preserve it by reviewing it and acting upon it since it is obligatory for the one who has knowledge to act upon it. Then he teaches this knowledge since it is a blessing and he must be thankful for this blessing.

- (2) Be honourable, preserve knowledge, and stay away from teaching and positions before you are qualified for that.
- (3) From the manners of asking questions is to ask about that which is more important or beneficial first.
- (4) The student of Islamic knowledge must also take care of his or her appearance.
- (5) After the death of the Prophet -may Allah praise him and send him peace– we do not say: 'Allah and His Messenger know best', but rather we only say: 'Allah knows best'.

The third principle:

Knowledge of your Prophet Muhammad –may Allah praise him and send him peace-. He is: Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdullah Ibn ‘Abdul-Muttalib Ibn Haashim, and Haashim is from Quraysh, and Quraysh is from the Arabs, and the Arabs are from the descendants of Ismaa’eel Ibn Ibraaheem Al-Khaleel (the beloved) -upon him and our Prophet the best of praise and peace-.

He lived 63 years; from them 40 years prior to becoming a prophet, and 23 years as a prophet and a messenger.

He became a prophet with the verse «Iqraa», and a messenger with «Al-Muddathir».

His city was Mecca, and he migrated to Medina.

This paragraph briefly talks about the Prophet –may Allah praise him and send him peace-, including his name, his lineage, his age, and a little bit about his Da’wah.

We must know some facts about our Prophet

His name and lineage:

He is:
Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdullah Ibn ‘Abdul-Muttalib Ibn Haashim, and Haashim is from Quraysh, and Quraysh is from the Arabs, and the Arabs are from the descendants of Ismaa’eel Ibn Ibraheem Al-Khaleel (the beloved).

His age:

His age: 63 years old, from them 40 years prior to becoming a prophet, and 23 years a prophet and a messenger.

His prophethood is broken down into two periods:

The Mecca period, which lasted 13 years.

The Medina period, which lasted 10 years.

Is he –may Allah praise him and send him peace- a Prophet or a Messenger? He is a Prophet with the verse «Iqraa/Read» and then became a messenger with «Al-Muddatthir/The one covered up».

A brief summary of his biography

His invitation to Islam during the Meccan period was mainly focused on Tawheed, and expelling Shirk; making worship solely for Allah alone. This da'wah continued in this way for a period of 13 years.

He – may Allah praise him and send him peace- was then ordered to migrate to Medina, and his da'wah continued primarily focusing on Tawheed, plus the revelation of the remaining aspects of the religion such as acts of worship, business transactions, and daily affairs of our lives.

And if someone was to examine his biography s/he would notice that his primary focus from the beginning of the prophethood until his death was Tawheed. This is a clear and strong proof against those who discourage people from studying Tawheed, and claim that one only needs a few minutes to completely study it.

Allah sent him as a warner against Shirk (polytheism), and a caller to Tawheed (monotheism).

The proof is His statement, «O you who covers himself [with a garment]. Arise and warn. And your Lord glorify. And your clothing purify. And uncleanness avoid» (Qur'an 73-1-5).

The meaning of «Arise and warn» is to warn against Shirk and call to Tawheed.

«And your Lord glorify»; glorify by singling Him in worship.

«And your clothing purify»; cleanse your actions from Shirk.

«And uncleanness avoid»; Rrujz refers to idols. Abandoning it means freeing yourself from it and its people.

13 years were spent calling to Tawheed. After 10 years, he was taken up to the heavens, and the five daily prayers were made obligatory. He prayed 3 years in Mecca, until he was commanded to migrate to Madina.

We can extrapolate 2 benefits from his statement 'he was taken up to the heavens':

- (1) Whatever we are informed of from the Prophet – may Allah praise him and send him peace- from affairs of the unseen, we respond with: We believe, we affirm it is the truth, and we submit and accept it.
- (2) The importance of the obligatory prayers, considering the fact that it was made obligatory in the heavens.

Migration is moving from the land of Shirk to the land of Tawheed. It is obligatory upon the Muslims and it will remain so until the final Hour is established.

The proof is His statement, «Indeed, those whom the angels take [in death] while wronging themselves- [the angels] will say, 'In what condition were you?' They will say, 'We were oppressed in the land'. They [the angels] will say, 'Was not the earth of Allah spacious enough for you to emigrate therein?' For those, their refuge is Hell - and evil it is as a destination. Except for the oppressed among men, women, and children who cannot devise a plan nor are they directed to a way. For those it is expected that Allah will pardon them, and Allah is ever Pardoning and Forgiving» (Qur'an 4:97-99).

And His saying, «O My servants who have believed, indeed My earth is spacious, so worship only Me» (Qur'an 29:56). Al-Baghawi (516H) mentions: The reason behind the revelation of this verse is the Muslims that were in Mecca that had not migrated, Allah called onto them with the name of faith (those who have believed).

And the proof for migration in the Sunnah is the Prophetic saying, “Migration will not end until repentance comes to an end, and repentance will not come to an end until the Sun rises from the West” (Abu Dawood, Authenticated by Albani).

Migration is divided into 2 categories:

Migration from Mecca to Medina. This ended when Mecca was conquered

Migration from everything that Allah has commanded us to migrate from or boycott, such as specific actions, people, times, and places.

Repentance will come to end by 1 of 2 means:

- (1) The sun rising from the west.
- (2) Death. Allah says, «But repentance is not accepted from those who continue to do evil deeds up until, when death comes to one of them, he says, 'Surely, I have repented now', or of those who die while they are disbelievers» (Qur'an 4: 18).

“There is no migration after the conquest” refers to the migration from Mecca to Medina, where the Prophet –may Allah praise and send him peace– is also alluding to the fact that Mecca will never again return to a land of disbelief.

- (1) Shaykh Ibn Uthaimen (1347-1421H) mentions: 'Zakaat was first made obligatory in Mecca, but the amount one must reach before it becomes obligatory to pay and how much is it obligatory to pay was not determined except in Madina.
- (2) The Prophet—may Allah praise and send him peace- died on the 10th year after migration, and was buried in the house of 'Aisha – may Allah be pleased with her-
- (3) There is no good except he directed the Muslims to it and no evil except he warned them against it. It is essential that we bear witness that the Prophet—may Allah praise and send him peace- has fulfilled his trust, conveyed his message, advised this nation, and has truly strove for the sake of Allah, until he left us on a clear path whose night is as clear as its day; no one deviates from it but he is destroyed.

So, when he settled in Medina he was commanded with the rest of the Islamic Legislation such as zakaat (1), sawm (fasting), hajj, jihaad, adhaan, commanding the good and forbidding the evil, along with other legislations.

He continued like this for 10 years until his eventual death – may Allah praise and send him peace- (2).

But his religion remains, and this is his religion; there is no good except he directed his followers to it, and no evil except he warned them against it. From the good he directed to: Tawheed, and everything that Allah loves and is pleased with. From the evil he warned us from; Shirk, and everything Allah dislikes and hates (3).

The Greatest Prohibitions

Major Shirk:

Takes one out of the fold of Islam.

Minor Shirk:

Does not take one out of the fold of Islam.

Major Sins:

Every action that is subjected to a specific punishment.

Minor Sins:

Every forbidden act that is not subjected to a specific punishment.

Allah sent him to all the people, and made obedience to him obligatory upon people and jinn. The proof is His saying, «Say, [O Messenger], 'O people, surely I am the Messenger of God to you all...» (Qur'an 7:158) (1).

Allah has completed through him the religion. The proof is His saying, «... This day I have perfected for you your religion, completed My favor upon you, and have approved for you Islām as religion...» (Qur'an 5:3) (2).

And the proof for his death– may Allah praise and send him peace– is, «Certainly you will die and they will die. Then, on the Day of Resurrection, before your Lord, you will dispute» (Qur'an 39:30-31).

(2) The Prophet – may Allah praise and send him peace– was sent to all people. Due to this all other legislations that came before it became abrogated. Jews and Christians at the time of the Prophet– may Allah praise and send him peace– and in our time, if the message of Islam reaches them and they do not accept it are considered disbelievers, even if they are upon the same religion of Musa and Eesaa –may peace be upon them–.

His saying, «Say, 'O People of the Scripture, come to a word that is equitable between us and you – that we will not worship except Allah and not associate anything with Him and not take one another as lords instead of Allah.» But if they turn away, then say, 'Bear witness that we are Muslims [submitting to Him].» (Qur'an 3: 64).

The Prophetic saying, “I swear by He whose Hands my soul is in, there is not a Jew or a Christian that hears of me and then does not believe in me except he is from the people of the Hell-Fire” (Muslim and others).

(3) This verse is a proof against those who innovate acts of worship in the religion.

Conclusion

(1) All people will taste death without exception, and they will be resurrected for a great day, the Day of Judgement, and then they will be judged; either rewarded or punished for their actions.

(2) And whoever denies the resurrection and the judgement has disbelieved, because he has denied a pillar from the pillars of faith.

(3) Nuh is the first of the messengers, and the proof is His saying, «Indeed, We have revealed to you, [O Messenger], as We revealed to Noah and the prophets after him» (Qur'an 4:16). The first prophet is Adam—may Allah praise and send him peace-. The prophet—may Allah praise and send him peace- was asked if Adam was a prophet? He said: “A prophet that was spoken to by Allah” (Ibn Hibaan). The last prophet and messenger is Muhammad —may Allah praise and send him peace-. The proof is Allah’s saying: «Muhammad is not the father of any one of your men, but he is the Messenger of Allah and the seal [i.e., last] of the prophets. And ever is Allah, of all things, Knowing» (Qur'an 33:40).

When people die, they will be resurrected, and the proof is His saying, «From it [i.e., the earth] We created you, and into it We will return you, and from it We will extract you another time» (Qur'an 20: 55).

Also, His saying: «And Allah has caused you to grow from the earth a [progressive] growth. Then He will return you into it and extract you [another] extraction» (Qur'an 71:17-18).

After the resurrection, they will be held accountable; either rewarded or punished for their actions. The proof of this is His saying, «And to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth - that He may recompense those who do evil with [the penalty of] what they have done and recompense those who do good with the best [reward]» (Qur'an 53: 31) (1).

Whoever denies the resurrection has disbelieved, and the proof is His saying, «Those who disbelieve have claimed that they will never be resurrected. Say, 'Yes, by my Lord, you will surely be resurrected; then you will surely be informed of what you did. And that, for God, is easy» (Qur'an 64:7) (2).

Allah has sent all the messengers to bring good news and to warn. The proof is His saying, «[We have sent] messengers as bringers of good news and warners» (Qur'an 4:165). The first of them is Nuh, and the last of them is Muhammad —may Allah praise and send him peace-, and he (Muhammad) is the seal of the prophets, and the proof that Nuh is the first of the messengers is His saying, «Indeed, We have revealed to you, [O Messenger], as We have revealed to Noah and the prophets after him.» (Chapter 4: 163) (3).

Allah has made it obligatory upon all the slaves to disbelieve in everything which is worshiped besides Him and to believe in Allah. Ibn Qayyim –may Allah have mercy on him- has said: "Taghoot is that through which the person has passed the boundaries, with regards to worship, following, or obedience". Allah has sent a messenger to every nation, from Nooh to Muhammad–may Allah have mercy on him- each ordering their people to worship Allah alone and forbidding them from worshipping false deities.

The proof is His saying, «And We have certainly sent to every nation a messenger, [saying], 'Worship Allah and avoid Taghoot» (Qur'an 16:36). These false deities are many, but their heads are five. Iblees -may Allah curse him-, whoever is worshipped and they are pleased with it, whoever calls people to worshipping them, whoever claims to know the unseen, and whoever rules by something other than what Allah revealed. The proof is His saying, «There is no compulsion in acceptance of the religion. The right course has become clear from the wrong. So whoever disbelieves in Taghoot and believes in Allah has grasped the most trustworthy handhold with no break in it. Allah is the All -Hearing and All-Knowing» (Qur'an 2:25). This is the meaning of 'there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah', and in the Prophetic statement, "The head of the matter is Islam, its pillar is prayer, and its top is struggle for the sake of Allah" (Tirmidhee).

Allah sent messengers and prophets to give good news and to warn; all have invited to Tawheed and fought against Shirk and false deities in all its forms. The proof is His saying, «We have certainly sent to every nation a messenger [saying], 'Worship Allah" meaning worship Him alone "and avoid Taghoot» (Qur'an 16:36) meaning to place these false deities in one side and place yourself in the opposite side. This is the best way to stay away from them, and to free yourself from shirk and its people.

Allah has made it obligatory on all His worshippers to reject false gods, and to have faith in Allah, and this must begin by first rejecting false gods before having faith in Allah, «... So whoever disbelieves in Taghoot and believes in Allah has grasped the most trustworthy handhold with no break in it. And Allah is the All-Hearing and the All-Knowing» (Qur'an 2:256).

Taghoot: Anything that a person exceeds his boundaries with regards to worship (such as worshipping a tree or a stone), or someone they follow (such as an evil scholar), or obey (such as leaders who order to disobey Allah).

These false deities are many, but their heads are five; Iblees -may Allah curse him-, whoever is worshipped and they are pleased with it, whoever calls people to worshipping them, whoever claims to know the unseen, and whoever rules by something other than what Allah has revealed.

Detailed ruling on the one who judges by other than what Allah has revealed

Major Disbelief

If one believes that human laws are similar or better than the law of Allah

Minor Disbelief

If one believes that judging by other than the law of Allah is false, but he judges by it due to his desires, love for leadership, or other similar reasons.

Ibn Qayyim divides struggle into four types:

Struggle of the Soul

It is done by seeking knowledge, acting upon it, teaching it, and patience.

Struggle against Satan

It is done by avoiding doubts (Shirk and innovations) and desires (Major and Minor sins).

Struggle against Kufaar and Munafiqeen

With the heart, speech, wealth, and self.

Struggle against people of oppression, innovation, and evil

With the heart, speech, and hand.

Conclusion

It is a must for every intelligent person to ponder over this great treatise and to study it carefully due to what it contains of the great principles every individual needs in the grave.

Summary in a Chart

The Three Fundamental Principles (In summary 'The Questions of the Grave'), their proofs, why do we study Tawheed? Why do we study The Three Fundamental Principles? What is the benefit of studying them?	The Four Important Points and their prop (Soorah Al ASr)	Knowledge	It is knowledge of: Allah, His Prophet, and the religion of Islam with proof. (The Three Fundamental Principles)
		Actions	Knowledge calls for actions; it is either responded to or it departs A scholar who does not act upon his knowledge will be punished before the idol worshipper
		Da'wah	Conditions for Da'wah: Sincerity, Islamic Knowledge, knowledge of the one you are inviting, wisdom, and patience.
			The first obligation we should invite to is Tawheed; this is the way of the Prophets and the Messengers. The most important Da'wah is inviting to Tawheed and warning against Shirk
		Patience	Patience to obey Allah (Prayer), staying away from disobeying him (Interest), and when tested with a calamity (Poverty).
			Patience with seeking knowledge, righteous actions, and da'wah.
	The Three Important Points	Tawheed of Lordship (The only Creator deserves to be worshipped alone) and Tawheed of the Names and Attributes.
		Tawheed of Worship (Sincerity), Allah is not pleased that anyone is associated in worship with Him; not an angel nor a messenger
		Freeing yourself from shirk and its people; by the heart (hating the disbelievers), by the tongue ("Say: O disbelievers: 'I do not worship that which you worship'"), and by actions (not participating in their celebrations, festivals, and not imitating them).

The Three Fundamental Principles (In summary 'The Questions of the Grave'), their proofs, why do we study Tawheed? Why do we study The Three Fundamental Principles? What is the benefit of studying them?

The reason for studying Tawheed

(Haniyfeeyah): The nation which is free from shirk and upon sincerity and monotheism.

Tawheed Linguistically: to single something out

Islamically: To single out Allah with that which is specific to Him from his Lordship, Worship, and His Names and Attributes. It has three categories:

1. Tawheed of Lordship: To single out Allah with His actions or to say that He is the only Creator, King, and Manager of the affairs of His creations.

2. Tawheed of Worship: To single out Allah with all worship.

3. Tawheed of the Names and Attributes of Allah: To single out Allah with that which He has named and described Himself with in His Book or in the statements of His Messenger -may Allah praise him amongst the angels and send him peace -. This is done by affirming that which He has affirmed for Himself and negating that which He has negated for Himself: without distorting their meaning, denying them, describing them, nor giving examples.

Shirk is worshipping other than Allah along with Him. It is the GREATEST sin on earth!

The Three Fundamental Principles

Knowing Allah, the Most Perfect: Who is your Lord? How did you come to know Allah? The Lord is the one who must be worshipped, types of worship, and the ruling on directing any worship to other than Allah with proof.

Knowing Islam and its proofs, the definition of Islam, levels of the religion, the pillars of Islam, the definition of Shahadah, the pillars of Imaan, branches of Imaan, Ihsaan, proofs for the levels of the religion, and signs of the Hour.

Knowing the Messenger: his lineage, birth, age, he is a prophet and messenger, his country, the wisdom for him being sent, the time period he invited to Tawheed, his ascension to the heavens, where and when were the prayers obligated? Migration, its ruling, and time. When were the rest of the legislations legislated? The time period of da'wah, his death, what religion did he come with, he is sent to people and jinn, the religion is complete so are the favors of Allah.

Conclusion		Resurrection and answering for the actions after death, the disbelief of denying the resurrection, the profession of the messengers and their invitation, the first and the last messenger, the two pillars of Tawheed; disbelieving in everything worshipped besides Allah and believing only in Allah, the definition of Taghoot, the heads of Taghoot, the description of how to disbelieve in the Taghoot, the meaning of La Ilaha Illa Allah, Islam is the main part of the religion, the pillar of the deen is the prayer, 'that which gives power to the deen' is Struggle in the way of Allah.
Types of Struggle	Struggle of the Soul	Struggling with that which is mentioned is Soorah Al Asr (Knowledge, righteous actions, teaching, and patience)
	Struggle against satan	Doubts	Major Shirk (takes one out of Islam) and Minor Shirk
			Innovations in the religion
		Desires	Major sins (every sin which has a specific punishment)
			Minor Sins (every prohibition which does not have a specific punishment)
	Struggle against the kufaar and munafiqeen	With the heart, speech, actions, and wealth
Struggle against people of oppression, innovation, and evil	With the heart, speech, and hand

Taghoot

It is anything which the slave goes overboard with in terms of worshipping such as stones and trees, following such as evil scholars, or obeying such as rulers who order with the disobedience of Allah. Tawagheet (pl. of taghoot) are many, but their heads are five: Iblees, anyone worshipped while he is pleased with it, whoever invites others to worship him, whoever claims knowledge of the unseen world, and whoever judges by other than the law of Allah.

Allah knows best and may Allah praise and send peace on Muhammad, his followers, and his companions

Appendix A: The Four Fundamental Principles

In the name of Allāh; the Most Merciful; the Bestower of Mercy.

[KEYS TO HAPPINESS] [1]

I ask Allāh, the Most Generous; the Lord of the Great Throne, to make you from His Awliyā' [2] in this world and the Hereafter; that He makes you blessed wherever you are and makes you from those who:

- show Shukr (gratitude) [3] when bestowed with a blessing. [4]
- have Ṣabr (patience) when afflicted [with a calamity]. [5]
- make Istighfār (seek forgiveness) when committing a sin.

Indeed, these three [characteristics] are the keys of happiness.

[AL-HANĪFIYYAH]

Know - may Allāh guide you to His obedience - that al-Ḥanīfiyyah is the religion of Ibrāhīm (alayhi as-salaam): that you worship Allāh alone, making the religion sincerely for Him; as He (the Most High) said:

{I did not create the jinn and mankind except to worship Me} [51:56]

When you have acknowledged that Allāh created you for His worship, then know that worship is not regarded as being worship unless it is accompanied by Tawḥīd, just as the Ṣalāh is not regarded as being a valid prayer unless it is accompanied by purification.

Similarly, if Shirk enters into worship it invalidates it, just like impurity [invalidates] purification when it enters into it.

When you have acknowledged that Shirk entering into worship invalidates it, negates all the actions and necessitates the person in it to eternal Hell-Fire, then you will realise the most important matter obligatory upon you is: to have knowledge regarding this, so that Allāh may save you from the abyss of committing Shirk with Him. Allāh said regarding this:

{Indeed Allāh does not forgive that partners should be set up with him, but He forgives everything else [apart from that] to whom He wills}

[04:116]

This knowledge comprises of four principles which Allāh (the Most High) has mentioned in His Book.

[THE FIRST PRINCIPLE] [6]

You should know that the disbelievers whom the Messenger of Allāh (sal Allāhu alayhi wa salaam) fought, they used to affirm that Allāh (the Most High) is the Creator and the One who controls all the affairs. However, this [mere belief] did not enter them into Islām.

The evidence of this is the saying of the Most High:

{Say (O Muḥammad): who provides for you from the Heavens and the earth? Who controls hearing and sight? Who brings out the living from the dead and brings out the dead from the living? Who controls the affairs? They will say: Allāh. Say: "Then will you not fear Him?"}

[10:31]

[THE SECOND PRINCIPLE] [7]

The disbelievers say: ‘We do not call upon them (the idols and false gods) and turn towards them except to seek nearness and intercession [to Allāh].’

The evidence [of them claiming to seek] nearness, is His saying:

{Those who take protectors besides Him (say): ‘We only worship them so they may bring us near to Allāh.’ Verily, Allāh will judge between them concerning that wherein they differ. Truly, Allāh guides not him who is a liar, and a disbeliever} [39:03]

The evidence [of them claiming to seek] intercession is the saying of the Most High:

{They worship other than Allāh that which neither hurts them nor benefits them, and they say: "These are our intercessors with Allāh}

[10:18]

[THE TYPES OF INTERCESSION]

Shafā‘ah (Intercession) [8] is two types: The prohibited intercession and the [correct] affirmed intercession.

The prohibited intercession is that which is sought from other than Allāh in which only Allāh is able to do. [9]

The evidence is the saying of the Most High:

{O you who believe, spend of that with which We have provided for you, before a Day comes when there will be no bargaining, friendship nor intercession. It is the disbelievers who are the oppressors} [2:254]

The [correct] affirmed intercession is that which is sought from Allāh. The one who intercedes is honoured with the intercession, and the one who is interceded for is he whose deeds and speech are pleasing to Allāh, after He gives Permission.

He (the Most High) said:

{Who is he that can intercede with Him except with His Permission?}
[02:255]

[THE THIRD PRINCIPLE] [10]

The Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) came to people differing in their worship. From amongst them were people who worshipped the angels, some worshipped the prophets and the righteous people, some worshipped stones and trees whilst others worshipped the sun and the moon.

The Messenger of Allāh (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) fought them all and did not differentiate between them.

The evidence is the saying of the Most High,

{Fight them until there is no more Fitnah (disbelief and polytheism) and all the religion is for Allāh (Alone)} [02:193]

The evidence [that they worshipped] the sun and the moon is the saying of the Most High:

{And from among His signs are the night and the day, and the sun and the moon. Do not prostrate to the sun or the moon} [41:37]

The evidence [that they worshipped] the angels is the saying of the Most High:

{Nor did He order you to take the angels and Prophets as lords} [03:80]

The evidence [that they worshipped] the Prophets is the saying of the Most High:

{When Allāh will say, ‘O ‘Īsā ibn Maryam, did you say to the people, ‘Worship me and my mother as two gods besides Allāh’.’ He will say, ‘May You be Glorified! It was not for me to say what I had no right (to do so). Had I said such a thing You would have surely known it. You know what is in myself and I do not know what is in Yours. Truly You are the All-Knower of all that is hidden} [05:116]

The evidence [that they worshipped] the righteous people is the saying of the Most High:

{Those whom they call upon desire (for themselves) means of access to their Lord (Allāh), as to which of them should be the nearest, they hope for His Mercy and fear His Torment} [17:57]

The evidence [that they worshipped] the stones and trees is the saying of the Most High:

{Have you considered al-Lāt and al-‘Uzzah and Manāt, the other third?} [53:19]

Also, the Ḥadīth of Abū Wāqīd al-Laythī (may Allāh be pleased with him) who said: ‘We departed with the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) to Ḥunayn and we had recently left disbelief. The Mushrikūn (polytheists) used to have a lote-tree which they would take as a place of devotion and hang their weapons upon; it had been named: ‘Dhāt Anwāt’.

We passed by a lote-tree and said, “O Messenger of Allāh, appoint for us a Dhaat Anwaat like they have a Dhāt Anwāt...”

[THE FOURTH PRINCIPLE] [11]

The Mushrikūn (polytheists) of our time are worse in their Shirk than the Mushrikūn (polytheists) who came before. This is because those who came before, committed Shirk during times of ease whilst directing their worship sincerely to Allāh during times of difficulty and hardship.

However, the Shirk of the Mushrikūn (polytheists) of our time is constant, - during times of both ease and difficulty. The evidence is the saying of the Most High:

{When they embark on a ship they invoke Allāh making their faith pure for Him only, but when He brings them safely to land, behold, they give a share of their worship to others} [29:65]

May the peace and blessings of Allāh be upon our Prophet Muḥammad and his family and all his companions.

Important Notes on the Text

About this treatise

The Four Fundamental Principles (al-Qawā'id al-Arba') is a treatise authored by Shaykh Muḥammad Ibn 'Abd al-Wahhāb as a summary of the author's more detailed book: Kashf ash-Shubahāt (A removal of the doubts), the author wrote these four principles in order to refute the common doubts of the people of Shirk.

[1] Keys to happiness

The author named the following three matters as being the keys to happiness, this is because a person's life revolves around them:

Gratitude (Shukr):

{But few of My slaves are grateful} [34:13]

Patience (Ṣabr):

{O you who believe! Seek help in patience and as-Ṣalāh} [02:153]

Seeking Forgiveness (Istighfār):

{It is He Who accepts repentance from His servants and pardons evil acts and knows what they do} [42:25]

[2] "I ask Allāh, the Most Generous; the Lord of the Great Throne, to make you from His Awliyā"

Who are the Awliyā' of Allāh?

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah said: A Walī is a person who has Īmān and Taqwā. The evidence is:

{Indeed the Awliyā' of Allāh, no fear shall come to them, nor shall they grieve. They are those who believed, and maintained Taqwā} [10:62]

[3] “To show Shukr (gratitude)...”

We show Shukr (gratitude) to Allāh in three ways:

1. Heart: Appreciating the blessing and referring it back to Allāh alone
2. Tongue: by mentioning and praising Allāh upon the blessing:
{This is from the virtue of my Lord} [27:40]
{As for the blessings of your Lord, make a mention of them} [93:11]
3. Limbs: A person should use this blessing in a manner which pleases Allāh. This is according to the type of blessing. So the blessing of wealth should be used in aiding Islām and giving in charity. The blessing of knowledge is to teach this knowledge to others.

Before a person is blessed with something, his heart must be attached to his Creator and Provider.

[4] “When bestowed with a blessing...”

Blessings are not always a reward, sometimes a good blessing can also be an affliction and a test:

{We test you with evil and with good as trial} [21:35]

[5] “You are patient when afflicted [with a calamity]...”

The types of people in relation to afflictions and calamities

1. Despondant and complaining: This is Haraam (impermissible), a person can be despondant in his heart, with his tongue or in his actions.
2. Patient: This is an obligation when afflicted by any calamity.
3. Pleased: This is recommended, and a level higher than patience.
4. Gratitude: This is the highest level a person may achieve.

[6] The First Principle

Summary: The disbelievers at the time of the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) used to accept Tawḥīd ar-Rubūbiyyah. He called them and fought them, this is because they did not accept Tawḥīd al-Ulūhiyyah.

[7] The Second Principle

Summary: The disbelievers at the time of the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) did not worship the idols, because they knew they cannot benefit nor harm, rather they used to worship them in order for the idols to bring them closer to Allāh and as a form of intercession.

[8] “Shafā’ah (Intercession) is two types...”

*Refer to the types of Shafā’ah on the next page.

Linguistic definition: To make one into two, an even number.

Islamic Shari‘ definition: Seeking intercession on behalf of another person in order to bring about some benefit or repel some harm.

[9] “The prohibited intercession is that which is sought from other than Allāh in which only Allāh is able to do...”

The ruling of seeking aid and intercession from people:

The base ruling is that help, aid and intercession is only asked from Allāh. However, in worldly related matters, it is also permissible to ask from people. The Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) used to help, and seek the help of his companions.

Intercession (Shifa’a) is permitted with four conditions:

1. Alive: The person whose help and intercession is sought is alive, and not from the deceased.
2. Ability: The person must have the ability to help and intercede, his help should not be from matters that only Allāh has control over e.g. asking for paradise or forgiveness of sins etc.
3. Present: He should be present, and be able to be communicated to.
4. Belief: The person seeking the help and intercession should believe that the person whose help is sought is only a cause placed by Allāh, not that he himself controls the matter.

[10] The Third Principle

Summary: The Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) came to a nation of people who worshipped different objects and deities, and he did not treat them differently.

[11] The Fourth Principle

Summary: The Mushrikūn of our time are more severe in the Shirk than the Mushrikūn of the earlier time.

Types of Intercession (Shafā'ah)

Negated & not permitted

It is intercession that is sought from other than Allāh.
It is requested in a matter that only Allāh can do
It has been negated by Quran
Its Ruling: Major Shirk

Correct & Affirmed in the Sharee'ah

Which is sought from Allah. Its Conditions are:

1. Allaah permits the intercession
2. He is pleased with the person interceding
3. and pleased with the person being interceded for.

{And how many angels there are in the heavens whose intercession will not avail at all except [only] after Allāh has permitted [it] to whom He wills and approves} [53:26]

Specific for the Prophet (sal Allaahu alayhi wa sallam)

The Great Intercession
Intercession for his uncle Abū Tālib, that his punishment is lessened
Intercession for the opening of the doors of Paradise

General from the Prophets, angels, righteous people and children

Intercession for the people of Tawḥīd, that their ranks is raised in Paradise
Intercession for the people of Tawḥīd not to enter into the Fire
Intercession for the people of Tawḥīd that have entered the Fire to be removed from it

Self-Test Questions

This exam is to test what you have understood from the study of The Four Fundamental Principles. The Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) said, “whoever cheats us, is not from us.”

Mention the evidence from the Quran or Sunnah:

1. A good blessing can be a test.
2. The disbelievers used to affirm Tawḥīd ar-Rubūbiyyah.
3. The Mushrikūn used to worship idols seeking closeness to Allāh.
4. The negated type of intercession.
5. The Mushrikūn used to worship the sun and moon.
6. The Mushrikūn used to worship the angels.
7. The Mushrikūn used to worship the Prophets.
8. The Mushrikūn used to worship the righteous people.
9. Shirk is not permitted.
10. The Mushrikūn used to be sincere in times of difficulty and perform acts of Shirk in times of ease.

Introductions:

1. Why do we study and teach Tawḥīd?
2. Why do we study the Four Fundamental Principles?
3. What are the three sections of this treatise?
4. Mention the Four Fundamental Principles are a summary of which book?
5. Why do we not start by studying the book: Kashf ash-Subahāt?
6. What are the keys to happiness?

Intercession (ash-Shafā'ah):

1. Define 'Shafā'ah' linguistically?
2. Define 'Shafā'ah' according to the Shariah.
3. What are the two main types of 'Shafā'ah'?

4. What are the two types of Affirmed Intercession? Give examples for each type.

Summarise:

1. The first principle.
2. The second principle.
3. The third principle.
4. The fourth principle.
5. What is the ruling of Shirk becoming mixed with an action and what is the evidence?

Appendix B: Ten Matters that Invalidate a Person's Islam

In the name of Allāh; the Most Merciful; the Bestower of Mercy

Know that the matters which invalidate a person's Islām are ten:

First: Shirk (ascribing partners) in the worship of Allāh (the Most High)

Allāh (the Most High) said:

{Indeed Allāh does not forgive that partners are ascribed to Him, however He forgives anything other than that for whoever He wills}
[04:116]

The Most High said:

{Verily, whoever sets up partners with Allāh (in worship), then Allāh has made Paradise forbidden for him and the Fire will be his abode. There will be no helpers for the Oppressors} [5:72]

Included in this is sacrificing for other than Allāh such as a person sacrificing for a Jinn or towards a grave.

Second: Whoever who sets up intermediaries between himself and Allāh; supplicating to them, requesting intercession from them and having Tawakkul upon them. [Such a person] has disbelieved by the agreement [of the Scholars].

Third: A person who does not consider the Mushrikūn (Polytheists) to be disbelievers, doubts their disbelief or considers their ideology to be correct. [Such a person has] disbelieved.

Fourth: Whoever believes that the guidance of somebody other than the Prophet is more perfect than the guidance of the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam); or the laws of other than the Prophet are better than the laws of the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) like the person who prefers the laws of the Ṭawāghīt (false deities). [Such a person has] disbelieved.

Fifth: If a person hates anything which the Messenger (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) came with, even if the person performs the action. [Such a person has] disbelieved.

Sixth: A person who makes a mockery of anything from the religion of the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam), its rewards or punishments. [Such a person has disbelieved].

The evidence for this is the saying of Allāh (the Most High):

{Say: Was it at Allāh, His Signs, His Messenger that you used to make mockery of? Do not make any excuse, indeed you have disbelieved after your Īmān} [9:65-66]

Seventh: Magic; included in this is ways of turning a person away from something he loves or swaying a person to love something [through magic]. So whoever does this or is pleased with it being done has disbelieved.

Allāh (the Most High) says:

{They (the two Jinn) would not teach this to anybody except saying: we are only a trial so do not disbelieve} [02:102]

Eighth: Supporting and helping the Mushrikūn (Polytheists) over the Muslims.

The evidence is the saying of Allāh (the Most High):

{Whoever wholeheartedly supports them and takes them as friends is surely from amongst them. Verily Allāh does not guide the oppressive people.} [05:51]

Ninth: Whoever believes it is permissible for some people to be outside of the Shariah of Muḥammad (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam), just as it was permissible for Khidr to be outside the Shariah of Mūsā (alayhi as-salaam). [Such a person has] disbelieved.

Tenth: Completely turning away from the religion of Allāh, by not learning it nor acting by it.

The evidence is the saying of Allāh (the Most High):

{Who is oppressing than the one who, when the Verses of his Lord are mentioned, completely turns away from them. Indeed we will exact retribution from the criminals (disbelievers).} [32:22]

There is no difference in all of these matters which invalidate a person's Islām whether a person is [doing them] in jest, with intent or out of fear except if a person is compelled to do them.

All of these matters are the most dangerous and yet most common of what takes place. So, it is befitting that a Muslim takes caution and fears for himself regarding them. We seek refuge in Allāh from anything that causes His anger and His painful punishment.

May Allāh send salutations upon the best of His creation Muḥammad, his family and companions, and grant them peace.

Important Notes on the Text

In the name of Allāh, the Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy

Are the invalidators limited to only ten?

The author Imām Muḥammad ibn ‘Abd al-Wahhāb (rahimahullah) mentioned ten matters which invalidate a person’s Islām. He limited them to ten even though there are other matters which may invalidate a person’s Islām. Despite knowing this, he limited his treatise to only ten invalidators. This is customary to his style of teaching, which he took from the Prophetic method of education and teaching.

As an example, the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) limited the destructive sins to seven¹, even though there are many other destructive sins.

The benefit in this is that it is easier for people to understand, memorise and recall something which is limited to a particular number, as opposed to a teacher listing every individual matter.

So the invalidators of Islām are more than ten, however the author mentioned the severest of them.

First invalidator: shirk

Shirk is when a person directs any act of worship to other than Allāh, or equates any unique attribute of Allāh to creation. The type of Shirk which invalidates a person’s Islām is: Shirk Akbar (Major Shirk), and it is only Major Shirk which exits a person from the fold of Islām and not Minor Shirk.

If a person, before his death, sincerely repents from committing Shirk then Allāh will forgive him and he does not exit from the fold of Islām.

{Say, "O My servants who have transgressed against themselves [by sinning], do not despair of the mercy of Allāh. Indeed, Allāh forgives all sins. Indeed, it is He who is the Forgiving, the Merciful."} [39:53]

After mentioning the first invalidator, the author then mentioned an Aayah as an evidence for it. This is one of the distinctions of Imām Muḥammad ibn ‘Abd al-Wahhāb, it is noticed from his writings that he relies heavily on evidences, always justifying anything he says with an evidence.

The author mentioned the saying of Allāh (the Most High):

{Indeed, Allāh does not forgive Shirk (partners to be ascribed to him), but he forgives what is less than that for whom he wills} [04:48]

This Āyah shows us that Allāh does not forgive Shirk, however He forgives all other sins whether they are major sins or minor sins. This Āyah therefore opposes the Khawaarij who considered a person who commits a major sin to be a disbeliever.

As for Shirk Aṣghar (Minor Shirk), then a person will be punished for it, but he will eventually enter into Paradise. Some scholars mentioned that Minor Shirk is similar to the Major Sins, so the person remains under the will of Allāh, perhaps He will punish him or perhaps He will forgive him. A third opinion distinguishes between a large number of actions containing Minor Shirk (this type of person is punished) and between a small number of actions containing Minor Shirk which may be forgiven.

“...Included in this is sacrificing for other than Allāh such as a person sacrificing for a jinn or towards a grave.”

The author then mentioned a common example of Shirk which is slaughtering for other than Allāh i.e. slaughtering an animal in the name of a person or Jinn, with both love and reverence.

Second invalidator: whoever sets up intermediaries between himself and Allāh; supplicating to them, requesting intercession from them and having tawakkul (reliance) upon them. [such a person] has disbelieved by the agreement [of the scholars].

We have previously studied the belief of the Mushrikūn to whom the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) was sent. They used to believe in Tawḥīd Ar-Rubūbiyyah i.e. that Allāh is the true Creator, Provider, Owner etc. However their disbelief and Shirk occurred in Tawḥīd al-Ulūhiyyah i.e. in worshipping other deities and entities. This has been clearly demonstrated in Sūrah Al-Kāfirūn:

{Say, "O disbelievers, I do not worship what you worship. Nor are you worshippers of what I worship. Nor will I be a worshipper of what you worship. Nor will you be worshippers of what I worship. For you is your religion, and for me is my religion"} [109:01-09]

Their Shirk in worship was in placing intermediaries between themselves and Allāh, seeking a Wasīlah or a Shafā‘ah to Allāh i.e. intercession.

So whoever directs any aspect of Worship to a Prophet, Walee or righteous person, believing that it is a form of Wasīlah or Shafā‘ah, then he has disbelieved with the very Shirk of Quraysh.¹ Allāh informed us of their Shirk, they would say:

{We only worship them that they may bring us nearer to Allāh in position} [39:03]

{And they worship other than Allāh that which neither harms them nor benefits them, and they say, "These are our intercessors with Allāh"} [10:18]

Third invalidator: A person who does not consider the Mushrikūn (polytheists) to be disbelievers, doubts their disbelief or considers their ideology to be correct. [such a person has] disbelieved.

The quality which truly establishes Tawḥīd is not the mere pronunciation of Lā ilāha illa Allāh, nor is it even acting upon its meaning. Rather, from the pillars and conditions of Tawḥīd is for a person to hate, reject and disbelieve in all other false deities and everything which is worshipped besides Allāh.

He (the Exalted) said:

{So whoever disbelieves in Taghoot (false gods and deities) and believes in Allāh has grasped the most trustworthy handhold with no break in it...} [02:256]

Allāh mentioned the statement of Ibrāhīm (alayhi as-salaam) said:

{When Ibrāhīm said to his father and his people, "Indeed, I am disassociated from that which you worship Except for He who created me; and indeed, He will guide me."} [43:26]

So whoever does not consider the Mushrikūn, Jews or Christians to be disbelievers, doubts it or justifies their religion, then he himself has left the fold of Islām.

Fourth invalidator: whoever believes that the guidance of somebody other than the prophet is more perfect than the guidance of the prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam); or the laws of other than the prophet are better than the laws of the prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) like the person who prefers the laws of the tawaagheet (false deities). [such a person has] disbelieved.

The best guidance is the guidance of Muḥammad (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam). For this reason Ahl as-Sunnah Wa 'l-Jamā'ah do not normally emphasise and exaggerate the biographies of scholars, because they did not want to attach people to personalities, but they want people to be attached to the guidance of the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam). Allāh (the most High) said:

{There has certainly been for you in the Messenger of Allāh an excellent example for anyone whose hope is in Allāh and the Last Day and [who] remembers Allāh often} [33:21]

Therefore, we do not give precedence to the statement of any individual scholar if it is contradictory to the statement of the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam).

If a person believes that the judgement, laws or rulings of any person, scholar or ruler are equal to or better than the laws of Allāh then he has committed Kufr and left the fold of Islām, even if he ruled by the laws of Allāh.

A person who rules by the laws of other than Allāh can be classified into three types:

1. A person by other than the laws of Allāh, believing that they are equal to or better than the laws of Allāh. This is major disbelief and he has left the fold of Islām.
2. A person who rules by other than the laws of Allāh, whilst believing that the laws of Allāh are superior and an obligation, but he does this due to worldly desires such as wanting authority or wealth. The ruling upon him is that he has committed minor Kufr which does not take him out of the fold of Islām, however we fear that he may fall into disbelief, and he is on the verge of severe danger in his religion.
3. The person is ignorant, he does not know, he merely hears a ruling from somebody thinking that it is the rule of Allāh. If it is a matter which is not known by necessity, then he is excused for his ignorance.

Fifth invalidator: if a person hates anything which the messenger (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) came with, even if the person performs the action. [such a person has] disbelieved.

A Muslim must love every command of the Shariah. Also the love of a Muslim towards Allāh must be greater than his love for any other entity, nobody must be equated to Allāh with regards to this – neither the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) nor anybody else.

A Muslim must love everything which has been mentioned in the Quran and Sunnah. If a person implements an obligation of the religion but dislikes or detests it then he has disbelieved. An example of this is a person who prays whilst at the same time disliking its obligation. Allāh (the Most High) said:

{But no, by your Lord, they will not [truly] believe until they make you, [O Muḥammad], judge concerning that over which they dispute among themselves and then find within themselves no discomfort from what you have judged and submit in [full, willing] submission} [04:65]

Sixth invalidator: a person who makes mockery of anything from the religion of the prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam), its rewards or punishments. [such a person has disbelieved].

The author said: “whoever makes mockery of anything from the religion...” the word ‘anything’ implies mockery of the religion of even the most smallest of matters is Kufr. Therefore any mockery of Allāh, His Messenger, His rulings and the Shariah, no matter how minor a person considers it to be, is Kufr which exits a person from the fold of Islām.

Then the author said: “and its rewards or punishments” – if a person mocks or jests about anything regarding the reward Allāh has prepared for the people of Taqwa, or the punishments Allāh has warned the sinners against; if a person mocks or jests about anything relating to the delights of Paradise, or the pains of Hell, then he has disbelieved.

The hypocrites who mocked the Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wasallam) and his companions justified their actions by saying:

{And if you ask them (i.e. the mockers), they will surely say, "We were only conversing and playing"} [09:65]

Yet despite this, Allāh described them as having lost their Īmān and committing disbelief. This shows that Allāh (the Most High) rebuked them with severity. In normal situations, if a person presents an excuse for his actions then his excuse is accepted and he is shown mercy. However Allāh (the Most High) rebuked them with severity even after they presented their excuses. This was to show the danger of mocking the religion.

{Say: was it at Allāh, his signs, his messenger that you used to make mockery of?} [09:65]

{Say: was it at Allāh} i.e. is there no other matter remaining that you could mock such that you have to resort to mocking the most sacred and divine matters such as Allāh, or {His signs} whether they are religious rulings like mocking the Prayer or universal signs of Allāh like a person saying: the four seasons in the year is stupidity or {His messenger} which includes any previous Prophet or Messenger.

{...That you used to make mockery of?} i.e. through joking, mocking or jesting regarding these divine sacred matters.

{Do not make any excuse, indeed you have disbelieved after your Īmān, If We pardon one faction of you - We will punish another faction because they were criminals} [09:66]

This is the evidence that a person who mocks any aspect of Islām has disbelieved and invalidated his Islām, and any excuse he present will not be accepted. However if he sincerely repents and seeks forgiveness then he will be forgiven. There are three conditions for the acceptance of his repentance:

1. That he must truly be sorrowful and apologetic for his mockery, and this in itself cannot be a joke. So his repentance must be sincere.
2. He must praise Allāh and His religion and be sincere in this. Just as he mocked Allāh and His religion, then he must also praise them.
3. He publicly announces his repentance and frees himself from his previous actions of mockery.

The ruling regarding a person who listens to the insulting and mockery of Islām

A person who hears the mocking and insulting of the religion can react in three possible ways. The first way is for him to be displeased with it, making his displeasure known, forbidding and reprimanding it. Such a person is a true Believer, striving for the sake of Allāh.

The second way is for a person to be displeased with the mocking, to turn away and distance himself from the mockers. Such a person has fulfilled the obligation upon him.

The third way is that he hears the mockery of Islām but remains in his place listening to it. His ruling is the ruling of the mocker, he is similar to him in his actions. The evidence for this is the saying of Allāh:

{And it has already come down to you in the Book that when you hear the verses of Allāh [recited], they are denied [by them] and ridiculed; so do not sit with them until they enter into another conversation. Indeed, you would then be like them. Indeed, Allāh will gather the hypocrites and disbelievers in Hell all together} [04:140]

This Aayah therefore warns against listening – or watching – mockery and joking of the religion. This also includes attending comedy shows in which Islām is mocked, or watching films or TV shows. The recent trend of movies regarding Prophets and companions also enters into this. They are often depicted by actors who are either non-Muslims or disobedient people.

Seventh invalidator: magic; included in this is ways of turning a person away from something he loves or swaying a person to love something [through magic].

The author mentioned two types of magic:

Ṣarf: Using magic to turn a person away from a woman, whether it is his wife or otherwise.

‘Atf: To sway a person towards being attracted to a woman who he would not normally be attracted to, whether it is his wife or otherwise.

In any case, practicing any type of magic or sorcery is disbelief, an invalidator of Islām. Why is magic an invalidator of a person’s Islām? Because it is not possible for a person who partake in magic and control it unless he disbelieves in Allāh. Therefore it is Kufr Akbar (Major Disbelief). It is one of the biggest avenues to call people to Shirk.

{They (the two Jinn) would not teach this to anybody except saying: we are only a trial so do not disbelieve} [02:102]

The Jinn or Shayṭān a person uses for magic must be worshipped and submitted to. For this reason, the more the magician worships the Shaṭān, the stronger is magic will be.

So whoever does this or is pleased with it being done has disbelieved.

It does not matter whether a person is involved in magic himself, or goes to a magician for it to be done for him, then he has disbelieved. This shows that Imām Muḥammad ibn ‘Abd al-Wahhāb does not differentiate between the two types of people.

The Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) said, “Whoever partakes in magic, or has magic performed for him, is not from us.”¹

The opinion that Imām Muḥammad ibn ‘Abd al-Wahhāb had regarding the Islāmic punishment for a person who partakes in magic is:

1. He is considered to be a Kaafir.
2. He is sentenced to the corporal punishment of death.
3. Repentance is not sought from him.

Eighth invalidator: Supporting and helping the Mushrikūn over the Muslims.

Supporting and helping the disbelievers over the believers invalidates a person’s Islām if he believes and intends to support Kufr over Islām.

The evidence is the saying of Allāh (the Most High):

{Whoever wholeheartedly supports them and takes them as friends is surely from amongst them. Verily Allāh does not guide the oppressive people} [05:51]

Aiding the disbelievers over the believers is different levels, it can either be Kufr Akbar which negates a person's Islām, or it is a major sin.

It is Major Kufr if a person aids and supports the disbelievers over the Muslims out of love for what they are upon, i.e. loving the religion of disbelief, Shirk and misguidance. He aids them out of free choice i.e. he is not compelled to do so. This person has left the fold of Islām, because Allāh said, {...he is surely from amongst them}.

As for a person aiding the disbelievers over the believers whilst rejecting their religion or being pressured to do so, and not out of love for their religion, then he is committing a major sin and Kufr is feared upon him but he remains a sinning Muslim.

Ninth invalidator: whoever believes it is permissible for some people to be outside of the sharee'ah of Muḥammad (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam), just as it was permissible for khidhr to be outside the sharee'ah of Mūsā (alayhi as-salaam). Such a person has disbelieved.

There are some people who believe that whatever the Jews and Christians are upon is the truth, and that they are brothers in Faith such that we should not consider them to be disbelievers. They justify this due to the Jews and Christians believe in the teachings of their Prophets (Mūsā and 'Īsā). They also say Khidr lived in the time of Prophet Mūsā and yet was outside his Shariah.

The reply to this:

Firstly: The Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) told us that every Prophet was always sent specifically to his tribe, whereas our Prophet (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) was sent to all of mankind. For this reason, any person to whom the Shariah of Muḥammad (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) was conveyed to but he refused to accept it then he remains a Kāfir, even if he claims he is a follower of Mūsā (i.e. a Jew) or a follower 'Īsā (i.e. a Christian).

Secondly, there is clear evidence which orders the Jews and Christians to believe in the Shariah of Prophet Muḥammad (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam). He said: "By the one in whose hand my soul is, if a Jew and Christian hears of me but does not believe in me then he will be from the people of the Fire."

Thirdly: It is upon him to establish the authenticity of the claim that Khidr did not follow the Shariah of Prophet Mūsā (alayhi assalaam). Even if the claim is authentic, it is not an evidence to justify the action of any person today because aspects of the legislation of previous prophets differed from our legislation.

Therefore, any person to whom the message of Prophet Muḥammad (sal Allāhu alayhi wa sallam) was conveyed and he does not believe in it, then he is a Kāfir (disbeliever).

Tenth invalidator: completely turning away from the religion of Allāh, by not learning it nor acting by it.

This is complete disregard for the religion of Islām in both knowledge and actions; it is disbelief, we ask Allāh for safety and pardoning.

There are many Āyāt which speak about the disbelief of those who make I'rād (turn away) from the religion of Allāh:

{Who is oppressing than the one who, when the Verses of his Lord are mentioned, completely turns away from them. Indeed we will exact retribution from the criminals (disbelievers)} [32:22]

{But those who disbelieve, from that of which they are warned, are turning away} [46:03]

{And whoever turns away from the remembrance of his Lord He will put into arduous punishment} [72:17]

There is no difference in all of these matters which invalidate a person's Islām whether a person is [doing them] in jest, with intent or out of fear.

The author concluded his treatise by mentioning an important matter, and that is that a person may justify doing one of the above actions and then say he was merely jesting. However, the author stated that any person who does one of the above invalidators leaves the fold of Islām, regardless of whether he did it in jest or seriousness. This is Allāh (the Most High) said:

{If you ask them, they will surely say, "We were only conversing and playing." Say, "Is it Allāh and His verses and His Messenger that you were mocking?" Make no excuse; you have disbelieved after your belief...} [09:65-66]

So Allāh judged them to be disbelievers, even though they justified their actions by claiming they were merely joking.

As for a person who does an invalidator out of fear, and his fear is only for his reputation, authority or some wealth then the same ruling as above applies.

...Except if a person is compelled to do them....

A person who is physically compelled to do an act of Kufr, whilst his heart rejects it and remains upon belief, is excused due to the saying of Allāh:

{Whoever disbelieves in Allāh after his belief... except for one who is forced [to renounce his religion] while his heart is secure in faith} [16:106]}

This is because nobody can compel nor control the actions of the heart. A person may be compelled to make a statement or an action, however the actions of his heart only he himself controls them.

However the person who is compelled and coerced is only excused with the following conditions:

1. His heart feels tranquil with Īmān.
2. He does not exceed the level he is coerced with i.e. if he is coerced and compelled to insult one of the Companions, he does not exceed this by compelling all the Companions.
3. The person tries to find a way out without being harmed; like some of the scholars did at the time of Imām Aḥmad. When they were compelled to say the Quran is created, they would instead point to their fingers (as if enumerating) and say: "The Torah, Injīl and Quran. These are created." They meant by: "these are created" i.e. their fingers that they were pointing at!
4. He does not transgress the rights of anybody else; so a person is not permitted to kill another person even if he was 'coerced' to do so.

All of these matters are the most dangerous and yet most common of what takes place. So it is befitting that a Muslim takes caution and fears for himself regarding them. We seek refuge in Allāh from anything that causes his anger and his painful punishment.

The invalidators which he mentioned are "from the most dangerous and common" invalidators. This shows that the author knew of the other invalidators but he wanted to limit them to ten if the most common and dangerous invalidators.

This treatise, and others similar to it, also demonstrate the sincerity of Imām Muḥammad Ibn ‘Abd al-Wahhāb towards the Ummah. He only explained these invalidators as an advice to the Ummah, so we can be aware of them. He mentioned every invalidator with an evidence. This is from the custom of the scholars i.e. mentioning evidences for each statement and claim. May Allāh have mercy upon him.

May Allāh send salutations upon the best of his creation Muḥammad, his family and companions, and grant them peace.

In the Name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful

Verily, thanks and praise is due to Allāh. We seek His aid and forgiveness, and we seek refuge in Allāh from the evil within ourselves and from the evil of our actions. Whoever Allāh guides will never be led astray, and whoever Allāh leads astray there is no guidance for him. I bear witness there is no God but Allāh alone, without any partners, and I bear witness that Muḥammad (peace and blessings be upon him) is His servant and His Messenger.

Preface

Author of this treatise

Shaykh ul-Islām, the revivor of the call to Tawḥīd (Islamic Monotheism), the Imām, Muḥammad Ibn Abdul Wahab Ibn Sulaymān At-Tamīmī: ‘Abul Hussein.

He was born in ‘Uyanah in the year (1115 Hijri) and passed away in Dir’iyyah in the year (1206 Hijri)

Al Qawā'id Al Arab'a* (The Four Foundations) is the second treatise which is studied as part of the student of knowledge's curriculum. Great importance was placed on this treatise for many reasons, from them:

Following the path of the scholars from the pious predecessors.

The advice from our scholars to study it.

Because it is a summary of the book ‘Kashf Al Shubuhāt’ (Unveiling the doubts).

It includes refutations of the doubts of modern-day polytheists.

We begin with this book, rather than beginning with Kashf Ash Shubuhāt, so that the student of knowledge is not influenced by any of the doubts contained within it (i.e., Kash Ash Shubuhāt).

Index of The Four Foundations:

This treatise is divided into three parts. They are:

Part I: Introduction (Keys to Happiness)

In the Name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful

(1) I ask Allāh, the Noble Lord of the Great Throne, that He be your Protector in this world and the Hereafter (2), and that He causes you to be blessed wherever you are (3).

(1) Reasons the author began his book with the name of Allāh:

1. In following the example of the Book of Allāh, the Messengers and the Prophets may Allāh have mercy on all of them.

2. In imitation of those who preceded us from the Scholars and pious predecessors, as it was their practice to begin their works and writings in the name of Allāh.

3. In seeking blessing from the name of Allāh, the Most Generous.

(2) After beginning with the name of Allāh, the Shaykh (may Allāh forgive him) began his introduction by making du‘ā (supplication) for the student of knowledge. This is common feature in his works and is indicative of his care and love for the student of knowledge and this is demonstrated in his asking of Allāh, that all good reaches them.

(3) The allies of Allah are those who combine correct belief and God consciousness.

Shaykh ul Islam Ibn Taymiyyah (may Allāh have mercy on him) said: “Whosoever is a God conscious believer, is to Allāh an Ally”

The proof of this is in the statement of Allāh the Most High: “No doubt! Verily, the Auliya' of Allah [i.e. those who believe in the Oneness of Allah and fear Allah much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which he has forbidden), and love Allah much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained)], no fear shall come upon them nor shall they grieve, Those who believed (in the Oneness of Allah - Islamic Monotheism), and used to fear Allah much (by abstaining from evil deeds and sins and by doing righteous deeds). [10:62]

Barakah: Increase and Gain.

Tabarruk: Seeking increase and gain.

Mubārak: He is the one, from who benefit is attained; wherever he may be.

Tabarruk (Seeking Blessings) is divided into two types:

Forbidden:

That which has no basis in the sharī'ah or by way of sensory perception. And it is from a type of minor shirk.

Legislated:

Which can be further divided into two subcategories:

Religious - such as praying in Masjid Al-Harām in Makkah or in the Prophet's Masjid in Madīnah

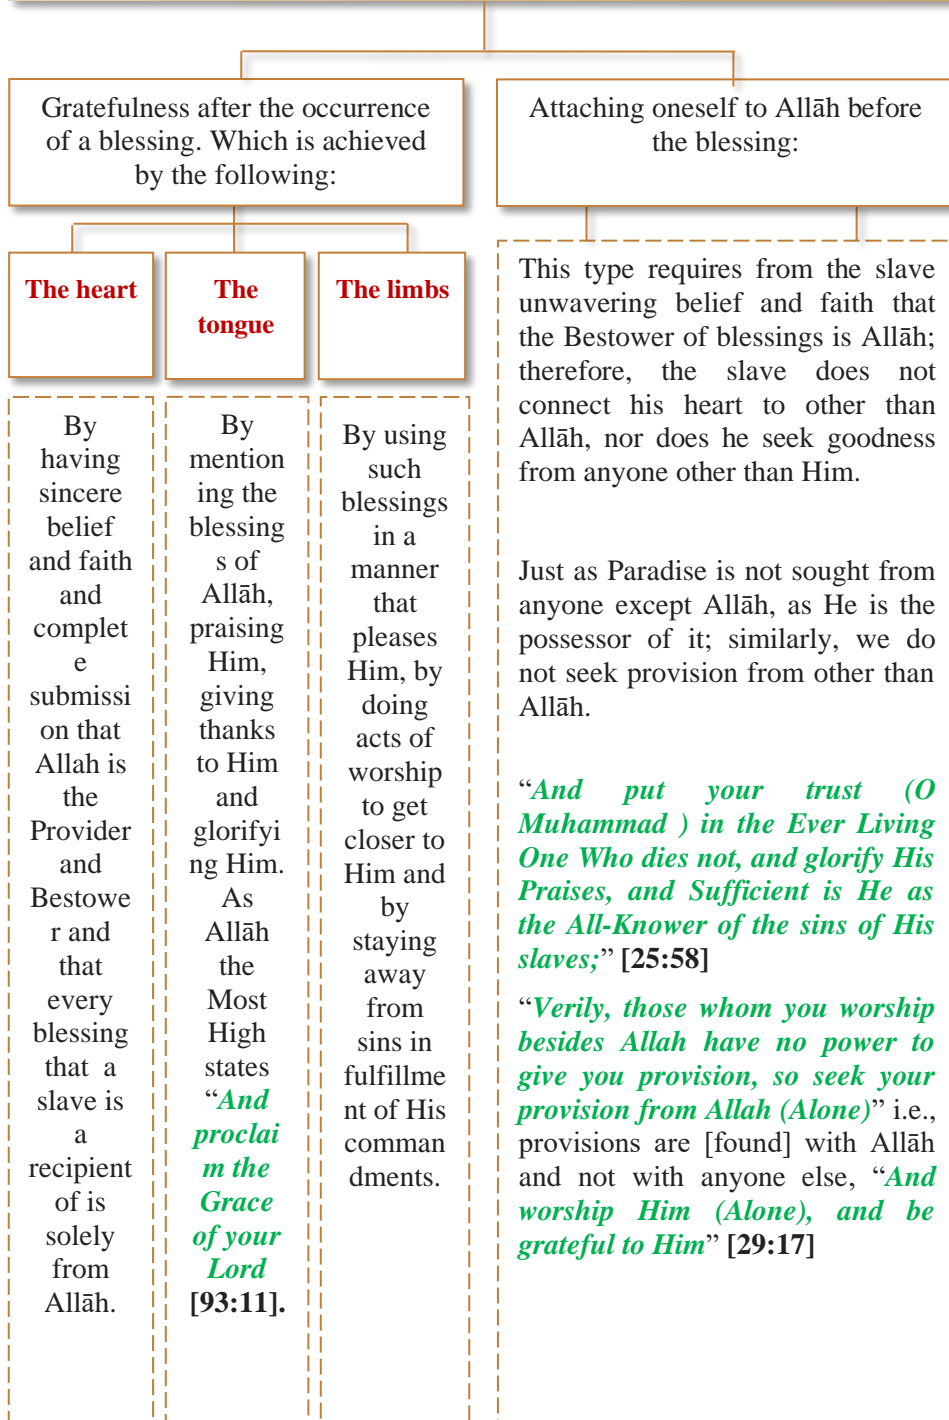

Sensory (tangible) – For example, knowledge, supplication and the likes. Such blessing can be obtained through an individual's knowledge and in his calling people to goodness. This is considered Barakah, since we reap a great amount of good through it. An example of this, are the books of Shaykh ul Islām and others from amongst the scholars, whom Allāh has placed an immense amount of Barakah in their writings and the Ummah has been the beneficiary of that.

And that He makes you from those (people) that, when given, are thankful (1).

(1) Blessings are a test, the proofs for this are many including:

- * "and We shall make a trial of you with evil and with good" [21:35].
- * "This is by the Grace of my Lord to test me whether I am grateful or ungrateful! And whoever is grateful, truly, his gratitude is for (the good of) his ownself, and whoever is ungrateful, (he is ungrateful only for the loss of his ownself). Certainly! My Lord is Rich (Free of all wants), Bountiful." [27:40]
- * "As for man, when his Lord tries him by giving him honour and gifts, then he says (puffed up): "My Lord has honoured me." [89:15]
- * And in a hadīth: "There were three from the sons of Isra'īl who Allāh wanted to test..."

Blessings are connected to Tawhīd al-Rubūbīyyah (Oneness of Allāh's Lordship) and Tawhīd al-Uluḥīyyah (Oneness of Allāh's Worship) and giving thanks to Allāh for them is divided into two:

(1) This is because patience is deemed mandatory by scholarly consensus.

Mankind in times of tribulations are divided into the following four categories:

(1) And when tested, are patient and when they sin, they repent.

1- Being discontent - Ruling: Impermissible, it is from the major sins and it may be committed by:

The Heart: The Imam Ibn Qayim Al Jawzī said: Verily some people would not dare to express [statements of discontent] with their tongue; however, their inner selves bear witness to them through their bad thoughts of Allāh. In their heart they say, “My Lord has oppressed me, My Lord has prevented me, My Lord has prevented me...etc.” be [these thoughts] a little or a lot. [Therefore], search within yourself, are you free from this; for if you are, you have been saved from a great matter.

The Tongue: This [type of discontentment] occurs by screaming, wailing, proclaiming destruction and downfall, cursing or the use of profanities.

The Limbs: This [type of discontentment] occurs by striking the cheeks (in mourning), ripping one’s clothing or pulling one’s hair.

2 - Patience - Ruling: Compulsory by scholarly consensus, and it is obligatory to be patient with one’s heart, tongue, and limbs. Imām Aḥmed (may Allāh be pleased with him) said, “Sabr (patience) has been mentioned in the Qur’an approximately ninety times and it is an obligation according to scholarly consensus and its half of faith for verily faith is two halves one portion patience and the second gratitude” [Madārij As Sālikīn by Ibn Qayyim]

3- Contentment - Ruling: Highly recommended, and it is a high level of patience

4- Thankfulness - Ruling: Recommended, and it's the highest and most complete level

Part II: The Four Fundamental Principles

In The Name of Allāh The Most Beneficent, The Most Merciful

Know, May Allāh guide you to His obedience, that al Hanifiyyah – the religion of Ibrāhim – is that you worship Allāh alone, sincerely, making the religion purely for Him. As Allāh, the Most High says: “And I did not create the jinn and mankind except to worship Me.” [Al-Dhariyat:56] (1)

Therefore, once you know that Allāh created you to worship Him, then know that worship is not considered worship unless it is complemented with Tawhīd (monotheism), just as the prayer (salah) is not considered salah unless it is complemented by purification (taharah). Accordingly, when Shirk enters into worship, it is ruined; just as impurity ruins purity.

So, if you aware that when shirk is mixed (with worship) it ruins it, and nullifies the action and renders the person from those people who will be permanently in the Hellfire, then you will realise that the most important matter upon you is being aware of this fact, perhaps (through this study) Allāh will save you from this evil web i.e., shirk with Allah, concerning which Allāh – the Most High – has said: “Verily! Allāh forgives not (the sin of) setting up partners in worship with Him, but He forgives whom He pleases.” [Al-Nisa:116]

And this is (accomplished) through knowing the four principles that Allāh – the Exalted – has mentioned in His book.

The First Principle:

To know that the disbelievers whom the Messenger of Allah (Peace and blessings be upon him) fought, affirmed that Allāh – the Most High – is the Creator, the One who Gives Sustenance and is the Disposer of all the affairs, yet this did not enter them into Islām. And the proof is in His, the Most High’s, saying: “Say, ‘Who provides for you from the sky and from the earth? Or who owns hearing and the sight? And who brings the living from the dead and brings the dead from the living? And who disposes the affairs?’ They will say, “Allah”, Say: “Will you not then be afraid of Allāh’s punishment” [Yunus:31] (2)

The Second Principle:

They (the polytheists) would say, “We do not supplicate to them and turn towards them except to seek nearness and intercession [with Allāh].”

And the proof of this, ‘nearness’ is in His, the Most High’s, saying: “And those who take Auliya’ (protectors and helpers) besides Him, [say]: ‘We worship them only that they may bring us nearer to Allah.’ Verily, Allah will judge between them concerning that wherein they differ. Truly, Allah guides not him who is a liar, and a disbeliever.” (2) [Al-Zumar:3]

And the proof of this, ‘intercession’ (shafā’ah) is in His, the Most High’s, saying: “And they worship besides Allāh things that hurt them not, nor profit them, and they say: “These are our intercessors with Allah.” [Yunus:18]

And there are two types of intercession: negated intercession (shafa’ah al manfiyya) and affirmed intercession (shafa’ah al-muthbata). (3)

(1) In this brief introduction, the author, may Allāh have mercy on him, clarifies why we study Tawhīd.

(2) The disbelievers that our Prophet (Peace and blessings be upon him) was sent to, acknowledged Tawhīd Al-Rububiyyah; nevertheless, our Messenger (Peace and blessings be Upon Him) fought against them. This is because the dispute between them and our Prophet (Peace and blessings be upon him) was regarding Tawhīd al Uluhiyyah. Therefore, anyone who allocates any act of worship to other than Allāh is a polytheistic disbeliever.

(3) The people of polytheism and disbelief attempt to validate their actions by claiming they do not call upon these false deities or turn to them, except to seek nearness and intercession. Nevertheless, this was sufficient enough grounds for the Prophet (Peace and blessings be upon him) to declare them disbelievers and fight them.

(4) Intercession: Linguistically means: The assembling and the making of one into two. Religiously: Interceding with another in an attempt to gain a benefit or deter harm.

Categories of Intercession:

Further Clarifications:

Negated Intercession: Is that which is sought from other than Allāh in that which only Allāh has control over.

The evidence for this is the statement of Allah the Most High: “O you who have believed, spend of that with which We have provided for you, before a Day comes when there will be no bargaining, nor friendship, nor intercession. And it is the disbelievers who are the wrongdoers.” [2:254]

Affirmed Intercession: Is that which is sought from Allāh, with the intercessor being honoured by this intercession. And the interceded is the one who Allāh is pleased with their speech and action after Allāh's permission [has been sought], as Allah the Most High states: “Who is he that can intercede with Him except with His Permission?” [2:255]

The Third Principle (1):

That the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) came upon a people who differed in their worship, from them were those who worshipped the Angels, from them were those who worshiped the Prophets and the Righteous, from them were those who worshiped the trees and the stones and from them were those who worshipped the Sun and the Moon. The Messenger of Allāh (peace and blessings be upon him) fought them and did not differentiate between them. The evidence for this is, is the statement of Allāh: “And Fight them until there is no more Fitnah (disbelief and polytheism of others along with Allāh) and that all the worship is for Allāh Alone.” [2:193]

And the proof regarding the Sun and the Moon is the saying of Allāh: “And from among His Signs are the night and the day and the sun and the moon. Prostrate not to the sun nor to the moon, but prostrate to Allāh who created them, if you really worship Him.” [41:37]

And the proof regarding the Angels is the saying of Allāh: “Nor would he order you to take Angels and Prophets for lords (gods).” [3:80]

And the proof concerning the Prophets is the saying of Allāh: “And (remember) when Allāh will say (on the Day of Judgement): O Issa (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary)! Did you say unto mankind: Worship me and my mother as two gods besides Allāh? He will say: Glory be to You! It was for me to say what I had no right (to say). Had I said such a thing, You would surely have known it. You know what my inner self is though I do not know what is in Yours, truly, You only You, are the All-Knower of all that is hidden and unseen.” [5:116]

And the proof concerning the Righteous is the saying of Allāh: “Those whom they call upon (like Issa/Jesus son of Maryam (Mary), Uzair (Ezra), angels, etc.) desire (for themselves) means of access to their Lord (Allah), as to which of them should be the nearest and they (Issa Jesus) and Uzair (Ezra), angels hope for His Mercy and fear His Torment.” [17:57]

(1) This principle is clear and plain evidence in refutation of those who say, “Shirk only occurs in worshiping idols and that any religious evidence that came were, in fact, specifically concerning idol worship and other than which was falsely worshiped during that time period”. [What is clear is that], the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) did not differentiate between them, moreover he opposed all false Gods and fought against them, without exception, in order that the Religion be solely for Allāh.

And the proof concerning the Trees and Stones is the saying of Allāh: “Have you then considered Al Lat and Al Uzza (two idols of the pagan Arabs). And Manat (another idol of the pagan Arabs) the other third?” [53:19-20]

And the hadīth of Abū Wāqid Al-Laithī who said: We went out the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ to Hunain, and we were not long ago upon kufr, and idolaters had a tree that they used to devote themselves to and upon which they used to hang their weapons. They called it Dhātu Anwāt. We passed by it and we said: «O Messenger of Allāh! Create for us a Dhātu Anwāt just as they have a Dhātu Anwāt.' The Prophet ﷺ said: "Allāhu Akbar! It is a tradition, by the One in Whose Hand is my soul, you have said what Bani Isrāīl said to Musā, “Make for us a God like they have a Gods””.

The Fourth Principle:

The mushrikeen (those who commit Shirk) of our time are worse in Shirk than the previous generations, because the former generations committed Shirk during times of ease and they would become sincere during times of hardship. Unlike the mushrikeen of today, whose Shirk is continuous; at times of ease and hardship. The proof for this is in the Saying of Allāh, “And, when they embark on a ship, they invoke Allah making their faith pure for Him only, but when He brings them safely to land, behold, they give a share of their worship to others”. [Al-Ankaboot: 65]. (1)

Allah knows best. May Allāh’s peace and blessings be upon Muhammed, his family and companions.

(1) In this principle the author, may Allāh have mercy on him, clarified the critical state of the polytheists of our time, for they are more severe in their polytheism than the former polytheists. This is due to the fact, that the polytheists in our time associate partners with Allāh in times of hardship as well as ease, as for the early polytheists then they would associate partners with him in times of ease and would recognise and call upon, Allāh in His Oneness, in times of hardship.

Therefore, if the disbelievers to whom the Prophet (Peace and blessings be upon him) was sent, [performed] less shirk and were less disbelieving, then what about when it comes to those who continuously associated partners [with Allāh], whether it be in times of ease or hardship; they are all the more disbelievers.

Part III: “The Ten Nullifiers of Islam”

Imām: Muḥammad b. ‘Abd al-Wahhāb (may Allāh bestow His mercy upon him)

1115-1206AH/1703-1792CE

Explanation by:
Shaykh Haytham b. Muḥammad Sarḥān
(Former teacher at the Prophet’s Mosque)

www.sarhaan.net

The Ten Nullifiers of Islām:

Shaykh ul-Islām Muḥammad Ibn ‘Abdul-Wahhab (may Allāh have mercy on him) said:

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful

Know that the Nullifiers of Islām are ten:

The First Nullifier:

The setting up of partners in the worship of Allāh, the Most High (shirk). Allāh, the Most High, says: “Verily, Allāh does not forgive that partners be set up with Him (in worship), but He forgives whatever is less than that, to whomever He wills. And whoever sets up partners with Allāh, he has indeed invented a tremendous sin.” [4:48]

And He, says: “... Verily, whoever sets up partners with Allāh (in worship), then Allāh has forbidden paradise to him, and his final abode will be the Fire. And the Zālimūn (polytheist and wrong-doers)” [5:72]

From [shirk] is offering a sacrifice (dhabh) to other than Allāh, like the one who sacrifices to the Jinn or to [inhabitant of] the grave.

The Second Nullifier:

Whosoever creates between himself and between Allāh Intermediaries (wasā’it), supplicating to them (du‘ā’) and asking them for intercession (shafā’ah) and relying upon them (tawakkul) has disbelieved, according to scholarly consensus (ijmā‘).

The Third Nullifier:

Whosoever does not deem the polytheists disbelievers; or has doubts about their disbelief (kufr); or considers their way (maḍhab) as correct - has disbelieved.

The Fourth Nullifier:

Whosoever believes that the guidance of someone other than the Prophet ﷺ is more complete than the Prophet’s guidance; or that the judgement of other than the Prophet ﷺ is better than his judgement – just like those who prefer the judgement of the those who judge by other than that which Allāh has revealed (tawāgīt); over [the Prophet’s ﷺ] judgement - have disbelieved.

The Fifth Nullifier:

Whosoever hates anything the Prophet ﷺ came with, even if he puts it into practice - has disbelieved.

The Sixth Nullifier:

Whoever makes a mockery of anything from the religion of the Prophet ﷺ, its reward or its punishment - has disbelieved.

Allāh, the Most High, says: "...Say: Was it Allāh, and His Ayāt (proofs, signs, and revelations) and His Messenger (ﷺ) that you were mocking? Make no excuse; you have disbelieved after you had believed..." [9:65-66]

The Seventh Nullifier:

Whosoever, practices magic: which includes causing discord (as-ṣarf) and causing affection or attachment (al-ʿataf), or is pleased with it - has disbelieved.

And the evidence for this is the saying of the Most High: "...but neither of these two (angels Hārūt and Mārūt) taught anyone (such things) till they had said, 'we are only a fitnah (trial, test) so do not disbelieve (by learning this magic from us) ..." [2:102]

The Eight Nullifier:

Providing backing or support to the polytheists and aiding them against the Muslims; the evidence of which is the saying of Allāh, the Most High: "O you who believe! Take not the Jews and the Christians as Auliya' (friends, protectors, helpers, etc.), they are but Auliya' to one another. And if any amongst you takes them as Auliya', then surely he is one of them. Verily, Allāh guides not those people who are the Zâlimûn (polytheists and wrong-doers and unjust)" [5:51]

The Ninth Nullifier:

Whosoever believes that some people are exempt from following the laws (sharīʿah) of Muḥammad ﷺ, just as al-Khaḍir was exempt from the laws (sharīʿah) of Mūsā, is a disbeliever.

The Tenth Nullifier:

Turning away from the religion of Allāh, by neither learning it nor acting upon it. And the evidence of which is the saying of Allāh, the Most High: “And who does more wrong than he who is reminded of the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, signs, revelations, etc.) of his Lord, then he turns away therefrom? Verily, We shall exact retribution from the Mujrimūn (disbelievers, polytheists, sinners, etc)” [32:22]

There is no difference, with respect to [the commission of] these nullifiers, regarding the one who mocks (al-hāzil), the one who is deliberate (al-Jādd) and the one who is fearful (al-khā'if). The exception to this is the one who is under duress (al-mukrah). And all of these [nullifiers] are of the most dangerous matters and the most common in occurrence. Hence, a Muslim should be cautious about them and fear [falling into them].

We seek refuge with Allāh from the causes of His wrath and His severe punishment.

May the peace and blessing of Allāh be on the best of His creation, Muḥammad ﷺ and on his family and companions.

The Author's Introduction:

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful

Know that the Nullifiers of Islām are ten:

Why Do the Scholars Begin Their Books With: In the Name of Allāh (Basmallah)?

In imitation of The Noble Qur'ān, the prophets and the messengers (Peace be upon all of them).

In accordance with the hadīth:
"Anything which does not start with the Basmallah is imperfect"
 Even though it is weak (da'īf).

In imitation of the scholars from the predecessors (salaf), (May Allāh have mercy on all of them).

In seeking blessing by beginning with the name of Allāh (The Most High).

When a Number is Mentioned in the Qur'ān or Prophetic Tradition (Sunnah):

If we do not find, in the Qur'ān and Sunnah, a number that is greater than it, then that number has a [specific] reason, insofar as it cannot be exceeded upon. For instance: the pillars of faith (imān), as can be found in the ḥadīth of Jibrīl.

[However], if we find, in the Qur'ān and Sunnah, that which is greater in number, then the [previous] number [mentioned] does not have a specific reason and can be increased in accordance with what is mentioned in the Qur'ān and Sunnah. Such as his saying ﷺ: «Five are from *Fitra». And his saying: «Avoid the seven destructive matters».

Why Is the Number Mentioned Sometimes Without Reason?

This is from the positive teaching methods of the Prophet ﷺ, in that he wanted the listeners to grasp what was mentioned in the sitting, enabling them to recall it at a later time, like his sayings ﷺ: « Three things I swear upon and I narrate them thoroughly to you, so memorise it: The wealth of the slave [of Allāh] shall not be decreased by charity, no slave suffers injustice and is patient, except that Allāh increases his honour, no slave opens a door to begging except that Allāh opens a door for him to poverty », and the author followed this method (may Allāh have mercy on him).

Why Do We Study These Nullifiers?

In order to distance ourselves from them and to avoid falling into them. Consequently, by studying them we can attain a great benefit, in fact it is the greatest of benefits. Just as we learn the invalidators of ablution (wuḍū) or prayer (ṣalāh), so that our ablution or prayer is not deemed null and void. Hudhayfa b. al-Yamān (May Allāh be pleased with him) narrated: « The people used to ask the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about the good, but I used to ask him ﷺ about the evil, in fear that it might overtake me ».

What Are The Nullifiers of Islām?

It is from what ruins one's Islām and what causes one to exit the fold of Islām and fall into major disbelief. Islām is: surrendering to Allāh with Monotheism (Tawhīd), and submitting to Allāh with complete obedience and renouncing polytheism (shirk) and the people of polytheism.

Its meaning:

That which causes a Muslim to leave the fold of Islām to major disbelief (We ask Allāh for His wellness and safety).

Why do the scholars use different expressions like: nullifiers or invalidators, or annulments?

The words are used in diversely, so the student is not bored by them. However, their meaning is the same, just as it is said invalidators of wuḍū, or nullifiers of Islām.

Are these nullifiers agreed upon by the scholars?

Yes.

Are they restricted to a specific number?

No.

Why did he say they are ten?

These are from the most dangerous and so that they can be memorised.

Is It Possible to Categorise These Nullifiers In General Terms?

Acts of speech: Including cursing Allāh or the Messenger ﷺ or the religion.	Actions: And from them is magic.	Belief: And from that, is the belief in the receipt of benefit from other than Allāh	Doubts: Doubt in the disbelief of the Jews and the Christians, who received the Prophetic message ﷺ and did not believe in it.
---	--	--	--

Did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ mention the Ten Nullifiers? What is the proof for that?

Yes, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ mentioned all of these invalidators and every invalidator has a proof from the Qur'ān and Sunnah. Allāh says in the Qur'ān: “And thus do We explain the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) in detail, that the way of the Mujrimūn (criminals, polytheists, sinners), may become manifest” [6:55]

If That Person Was Seen or Was Known To Commit a Nullifier, Is One Permitted to Declare them a Disbeliever?

No, they are not. The [individual] must return the matter to the senior scholars and the Islamic Shari'ah Courts when it concerns a specific ruling of disbelief. The Prophet of Allāh said: «If anyone says to his brother, Oh Disbeliever! Then surely one of them is as such, (i.e. either the one who is claimed to be a disbeliever is indeed a disbeliever, or the one claiming so is himself a disbeliever) ».

Who Compiled These Invalidators?

All of the authors of jurisprudence (fiqh) would mention the invalidators in the chapter of discussing the rulings on apostasy. However, the author was the first to compile them independently.

Is there a Differentiation Between the Act and the Perpetrator of the Action?

Yes definitely, because not everyone who falls into an act of disbelief, has necessarily become a disbeliever. Therefore, in the case of a specific ruling of disbelief, a full explanation of the jurisprudence and rulings and a response to any doubts are a prerequisite. Furthermore, the author's goal (may Allāh have mercy on him) was not to proclaim specific people disbelievers; rather it was to warn them of the invalidators and was [a form of advice] to the Muslim nation (ummah).

Once One Has Studied These Nullifiers What Should They Do?

It is upon the Muslim to be cautious of them and to fear falling into them and he should warn others about them. As for passing rulings on individuals, then this should be left to the senior scholars and the Islamic Shari'ah Courts. Allāh (The Most High) says in the Quran: "Verily, there has come unto you a Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from amongst yourselves (i.e. whom you know well). It grieves him that you should receive any injury or difficulty. He (Muhammad ﷺ) is anxious over you (to be rightly guided, to repent to Allāh, and beg Him to pardon and forgive your sins, in order that you may enter Paradise and be saved from the punishment of the Hellfire), for the believers (he ﷺ is) full of pity, kind, and merciful. But if they turn away, say (Oh Muhammad ﷺ): "Allāh is sufficient for me. La ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He), in Him I put my trust and He is the Lord of the Mighty Throne" [9:128-129]

The First Nullifier:

Associating partners in the worship of Allāh, the Most High. The Most High, says: “Verily, Allāh does not forgive that partners be set up with Him (in worship), but He forgives whatever is less than that, to whomever He wills. And whoever sets up partners with Allāh, he has indeed invented a tremendous sin.” [4:48]

And He, the Most High, says: “...Verily, whoever sets up partners with Allāh (in worship), then Allāh has forbidden paradise to him, and his final abode will be the Fire. And the Zālimūn (wrongdoers, polytheists) will have no helpers.” [5:72] And from this is offering a sacrifice (dhabḥ) for other than Allāh, like the one who sacrifices to the Jinn or to the [inhabitants of the] grave.

Types of Shirk (associating partners with Allāh).

Major Shirk, this is the intended focus of the author (may Allāh have mercy on him). The essence of which is to believe that there is another, other than Allāh, that has hidden control over the Universe or within his hand is the ability to provide benefit or prevent harm. This type of shirk:

1. Removes one from the fold [of Islām]
2. Invalidates one's good deeds
3. Makes one liable to capital punishment and the confiscation of wealth (by the officially recognised ruler).
4. Necessitates eternal punishment in the Hell fire.
5. It is subject to the shar'ah defining it as major disbelief.
6. If shirk or kufr are preceded by the letters alif and lām (definite items) in the sacred text, then it is an indication of major shirk.

Minor Shirk, in reality is to assign a cause to something which Allāh has not made it a cause. And every path that leads to Major Shirk is considered to be Minor Shirk.

This type of shirk:

1. Does not cause one to leave the fold [of Islām]
2. Invalidates specific actions only.
3. Does not subject one to capital punishment or a confiscation of wealth.
4. Does not subject one to eternal punishment in the Hell fire.
5. It is subject to the shar'ah defining it as it minor disbelief.
6. If shirk or kufr are not preceded by the letters alif and lām (definite items) in the sacred text, then it is an indication of minor shirk.

Will Major Shirk Be Forgiven?

No, it will not be forgiven if one dies in the state of Major Shirk (Major Disbelief). Allāh says in the Quran: “Verily, Allāh forgives not that partners should be set up with him in worship” [4:48]

If he repents, then he is forgiven due to the statement of Allāh the Most High in the Qur’ān: “Say: Oh ‘Ibādī (My slaves) who have transgressed against themselves (by committing evil deeds and sins)! Despair not of the Mercy of Allāh, verily Allāh forgives all sins. Truly, He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful” [39:53]

As long as the Sun hasn’t risen from the West, in accordance with the saying of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ: «Migration will not end until repentance ends, and repentance will not end as long as the Sun has not risen from the West”. ». Or when he is in the throes of death. The Most High says: “And of no effect is the repentance of those who continue to do evil deeds until death faces one of them and he says: “Now I repent;” nor of those who die while they are disbelievers. For them We have prepared a painful torment” [4:18]

Types Of Forbidden Acts:

Major Shirk:

And this is gravest

Minor Shirk:

And this is everything not considered major shirk and everything that is greater than the major sins.

Major Sins:

(al Kabā’ir), they are acts which have been assigned a specific punishment, such as being cursed by Allāh, or being exiled, or being disowned, or being [identified] as being from the disbelievers or polytheists, or not being [considered] to be from the believers or being likened to the worst animals.

Minor Sins:

(al Saghā’ir), is every act that Allāh has forbidden, but did not assign a specific punishment

Is There an Exact Number ?

It does not have a specific number but can include any act that conforms to the above classifications.

Are Major Sins a Single Level or Multiple Levels?

They differ according to the statement of The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ «The biggest of the majors (sins)».

What is the Ruling of Major Sins?

The ruling is that repentance from committing a major sin is mandatory, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: «...If one avoids the major sins...».

The Ruling on The One Who Commits Major Sins:

[They are] a deficient believer or a believer by faith (imān), but a sinner due to major sins.

[They are] loved in proportion to their faith (imān) and are despised in proportion to their major sins.

A person should not be in the company of the one committing a major sin.

Types of Sacrifices (i.e., Animal slaughter)

Sacrificing for Allāh

This is what has been legislated, such as the sacrifice on the ʿId al-ʿaḍḥā, during the Hajj and for charity.

Sacrificed for Other Than Allāh

Sacrificing for other than Allāh out of love or exaltation (this is what the author intended).

It is Shirk Akbar (Major Shirk), such as sacrificing for Jinn or for the occupants of the graves.

Permitted (Mubaḥ)

Slaughtering for the sake of the meat itself, whether it be for eating, hosting guests, business and other than that.

The Second Nullifier:

Whosoever creates between himself and between Allāh Intermediaries (wasā'it), supplicating to them (du'ā) and asking them for intercession (shafā'ah) and relying upon them (tawakkul) has disbelieved in accordance with scholarly consensus (ijmā').

Categories Of Intercessions:

That which the creation is capable of:

This category is valid subject to four conditions:

- * The Intercessor must be present.
- * The intercessor must be alive.
- * The intercessor must have the ability.
- * It is believed that he is just a means.

That which only Allāh is capable of (two types):

Affirmed:

That which Allāh has reserved for Himself. It cannot be sought from other than Him and must meet the following conditions:

- * Permission for the intercession [to take place] is given by Allāh.
- * Allāh is pleased with the intercessor.
- * Allāh is pleased with those receiving the intercession.

Negated (this is what the author intended):

This type has been negated by the Qur'ān and it is that which is sought from other than Allāh, in that which only Allāh is capable.

It is Major Shirk.

Is It Correct For One To Say To Someone: "Pray For Me"?

If this request possesses within it a type of spiritual indigence, then this is a type of minor shirk. However, where du'ā is sought from someone who is alive, present, capable and it is believed that he is just a means, then this is valid – but it's better to leave it off.

Types of Affirmed Intercession:

Specific to The Prophet of Allāh ﷺ

It is of three types:

1. The great intercession (on the day of judgement).
2. The intercession for the uncle of the prophet, Abū Ṭālib, that Allāh lessens his punishment.
3. The intercession of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ to open the gates of paradise (Jannah).

General Given to the Messengers, Prophets, Angels and People of Tawhīd

This intercession is of three types:

1. The intercession for the people of Tawhīd, that they be raised in rank.
2. The intercession for the people of Tawhīd, who deserve to be in Hell, that they are not entered into it.
3. The intercession for those who entered Hell, from the people of Tawhīd, that they be removed from it.

Tawakkul (Reliance in Allāh)

It is the sincere reliance in Allāh, putting one's full trust in Him, while [also] taking the legislated means.

It is Major Shirk

If it is directed to other than Allāh (this is what the author intended, i.e., Tawakkul of worship and submission). Which is the complete dependence on the one being relied upon, insofar, as it is believed, with full spiritual indigence and need, that in his hand is the ability to benefit or prevent harm – like relying on the deceased.

It is Minor Shirk

If reliance on a person, who is alive, is coupled with a spiritual indigence. Just like when someone relies on another for his provisions raising him above and beyond being simply a means.

It is Permissible:

To depend upon someone, who is alive, without any spiritual indigence to carry out that which they have been delegated – just as you would entrust someone to sell something.

Is it Correct to Say, “I Depend on So and So” or “I Depend on Allāh and Then So and So”?

Neither of the statements is correct, because this is an action of the heart and it should not be directed to other than Allāh. Rather you should say, I delegated so and so – meaning - I have entrusted this person to do something for me. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ delegated some from amongst companions (ṣaḥābah) for both general and specific matters.

The Third Nullifier:

Whosoever does not deem the polytheists disbelievers; or has doubts about their disbelief (kufr); or considers their way (maḏhab) as correct has disbelieved.

The Ruling of the Polytheists (Mushrikīn) in Islām:

Whosoever received the message of the Prophet ﷺ yet did not believe in it, is a disbeliever - major disbelief. According to His saying the Most High: “And Whoever seeks other than Islam as a religion, it will not be accepted from him, and in the Hereafter he will be among the losers” [3:85]

Are the People of the Book (Jews and Christians) Mushrikīn?

Yes, Jews and Christians who did not believe in the prophet Muḥammad ﷺ are considered among them. According to His saying the Most High: “Fight against those who (1) believe not in Allāh, (2) nor in the Last Day, (3) nor forbid that which has been forbidden by Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ (4) and those who acknowledge not the religion of truth (i.e. Islām) among the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), until they pay the Jizyah with willing submission, and feel themselves subdued” [9:29]. And the saying of the Prophet: «By Him in Whose hand is the life of Muhammad, anyone from the people of the Jews or the Christians who hears about me, and then dies not believing with what I have been sent with except that he will be from the inhabitants of Jahannam (hellfire)».

Does that Mean We Do Not Uphold Our Treaties with Them?

Whoever has a treaty must uphold his treaty [with them] to obtain the love of Allāh, the Most High says: “So long, as they are true to you, stand you true to them. Verily, Allāh loves Al Muttaqūn” [9:7] When dealing with the Mushrikīn, people can be divided into three groups:

Those who participate with the disbelievers in their celebration, festivals and religious devotions.

Those who commit injustice against them through killing, stealing, cheating and harming them.

Those upon the middle path are the, ‘People of the Sunnah and Muslim Community’ (ahl as-sunnah wa l-jamā‘ah) who avoid participating in their celebrations and festivals and fulfil their treaty obligations and neither commit injustice towards them and trade with them in business, while calling them to Tawḥīd.

The Fourth Nullifier:

Whosoever believes that the guidance of someone other than the Prophet ﷺ is more complete than the Prophet's guidance; or that the judgement of other than the Prophet ﷺ is better than his judgement – just like those who prefer the judgement of the those who judge by other than that which Allāh has revealed (ṭawāḡīt); over [the Prophet's ﷺ] judgement - have disbelieved.

The Categories Concerning Ruling by Other Than What Allāh Revealed:

[One] is to prefer the rule of law of the (ṭawāḡīt) over Allāh's rule of law, believing Allāh's rule to be incompatible.

If someone believes this then they have disbelieved – Major Disbelief (Al Kufr al-Akbar), which removes one from the fold of Islām. The Most High says: “They (the Jews and the Christians) took their rabbis and their monks to be their lords besides Allāh (by obeying them in things which they made lawful or unlawful according to their own desires without being ordered by Allāh)” [9:31]

[The Other] is to believe that Allāh's rule of law should be implemented, believing it is better for country and the people, but nevertheless preferring the ruling of the (ṭawāḡīt) due to inner desires, or a love for leadership and so forth. In this case this is Kufr Dūna Kufr, Minor Disbelief (Kufr Al Asghar) and is a sin. And if by following this path, he infringes upon the right of another Muslim then he is also a tyrant and is in danger of falling into major disbelief (Al Kufr al-Akbar), which removes one from the fold of Islām.

The Fifth Nullifier:

Whosoever hates anything the Prophet ﷺ came with, even if he puts it into practice, has disbelieved.

What Is the Evidence for This Invalidator?

The saying of the Most High: “That is because they hate that which Allāh has sent down (this Qurān and Islāmic laws, etc.), so He has made their deeds fruitless” [47:9].

And His saying: “But no, by your Lord, they can have no Faith, until they make you (Oh Muhammadﷺ) judge in all disputes between them, and find in themselves no resistance against your decisions, and accept (them) with full submission” [4:65].

And His saying: “And whomsoever Allāh wills to guide, He opens his breast to Islām, and whomsoever He wills to send astray, He makes his breast closed and constricted, as if he is climbing up to the sky. Thus, Allāh puts the wrath on those who believe not” [6:125].

Loving and Hating for the Sake of Allāh:

Loving and hating for the sake of Allāh are from the mandatory matters of the religion (wājibāt), in fact they are from strongest handholds of faith (imān).

What Is One Obligated to Love for the Sake of Allāh?

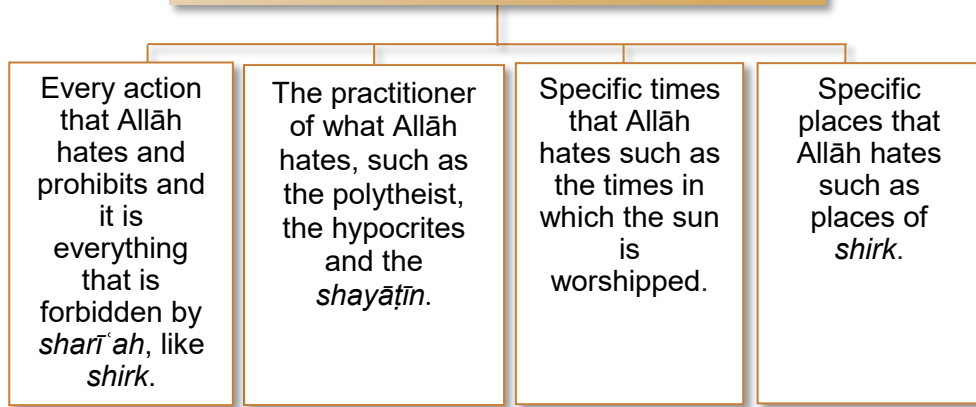

Every action that Allāh is pleased with, which it is everything that is legislated by the sharī'ah, like Tawhīd.

The practitioner of what Allāh is pleased with, such as the prophets, messengers, angels, ṣaḥābah and every muwwḥid (person of Tawhīd).

The specific times that Allāh loves, such as the 'Night of Decree' and the last third of the night'.

Specific places that Allāh loves, such as Makkah and the Prophetic City (i.e., Madīnah).

What Is One Obligated to Hate for the Sake of Allāh?

Does a Woman Become a Disbeliever by Hating Polygamy?

In reality, she has not negated the sharī'ah ruling; rather, she does not like that her husband gets married to another - there is no blame on her.

The Sixth Nullifier:

Whoever makes a mockery of anything from the religion of the Prophet ﷺ, its reward or its punishment, has disbelieved. Allāh, the Most High, says: “...Say: Was it Allāh, and His Ayāt (proofs, signs, and revelations) and His Messenger (ﷺ) that you were mocking? Make no excuse; you have disbelieved after you had believed...” [9:65-66]

The One Who Mocks or Jokes:

Its Meaning and Ruling:

Mockery means to ridicule and the ruling for the one who mocks or insults the religion is that he is considered a disbeliever and an opposer. And it is Major Disbelief (Al Kufr al-Akbar), which removes one from the fold [of Islām] and renders one from the eternal dwellers of Hell Fire (we seek refuge with Allāh).

As for the one who hears an insult, then it is upon him to denounce what was said or remove himself from such a gathering. The one who [remains] without denouncing them, is like them, this can be seen from the saying of, the Most High: “And it has already been revealed to you in the Book (this Qur’ān) that when you hear the Verses of Allaah being denied and mocked at, then sit not with them, until they engage in a talk other than that; (but if you stayed with them) certainly in that case you would be like them” [4:140]

His Repentance Is Accepted on the Condition that:

- 1- He praises Allāh in a manner that befits Him.
- 2- He frees himself from what he said in mockery.
- 3- The effects of his repentance should be visible on him, so that people may know his truthfulness.

As for the one who insults the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, if he is truthful then his repentance is accepted by Allāh; however, his fate will be decided by an [officially recognised] Islamic judiciary.

Does One Fall into Disbelief, if from One’s Speech it is Possible that an Insult May be Inferred?

If the alleged insult is not clear, the proper approach is to explain to him the danger of such speech and if he repents, then he is left alone, otherwise his case should be referred to the Islamic Judiciary and the Senior Scholars.

The Seventh Nullifier:

Whosoever, practises magic: which includes causing discord (as-ṣarf) and causing affection or attachment (al-ʿataf), or is pleased with it - has disbelieved.

And the evidence for this is the saying of the Most High: “...but neither of these two (angels Hārūt and Mārūt) taught anyone (such things) till they had said, ‘we are only a fitnah (trial, test) so do not disbelieve (by learning this magic from us)...’” [2:102]

Magic (all forms):

Its Ruling:

Magic is major disbelief (Al Kufr al-Akbar), as the Most High says:
“But neither of these two (angels) taught anyone (such things i.e., magic) till they had said, ‘We are only for trial, so disbelieve not (by learning this magic from us)’” [2:102]

The Signs of a Magician:

- 1- Contravening the rules of ‘Ruqyah Ash Shar’iyyah’ (legislated healing), which has the following conditions:
 - Only the words and names of Allāh should be used.
 - Only Arabic should be used.
 - Belief that ruqyah only works by the Will of Allāh.
- 2- Using disjointed words or using speech which is incomprehensible.
- 3- Reading the stars, the palms or tea leaves.
- 4- Blowing upon knots.
- 5- Causing discord and affection.
- 6- Ordering the sick with that which is in opposition to the sharīʿah, like committing forbidden actions or abandoning the prayer, or leaving off pronouncing the name of Allāh when slaughtering an animal for sacrifice.
- 7- Asking about the name of one's mother.
- 8- Claiming to possess knowledge of the unseen.

Visiting Magicians and its Rulings:

The meaning of visiting a magician is that one seeks their counsel, either by visiting them in person, or sending someone on their behalf or [via other means of communication], such as messages etc. Also, what falls within this is the watching of shows, looking at websites and reading magazines that contain horoscopes, palm reading and the reading of coffee grounds.

And the ruling of one who seeks the counsel of magicians is that his prayers are not accepted for 40 days as it is mentioned in the ḥadīth. As for the one who believes in what [the magician] says then the Prophet ﷺ said: «Whoever goes to fortune teller and believes in him has disbelieved in what was revealed to Muḥammad ﷺ».

Excluding the one who goes to him for the purpose of denouncing him, provided that he is qualified to do so.

Al Nushrah (removing the magic from the afflicted)

Permissible:

That which depends on the Ruqyah Ash Shar'iyyah (legislated healing), supplication or permissible medication.

Impermissible:

That which consists of any type of magic. The Prophet ﷺ said: «It is from the actions of shayṭān (satan)».

A Refutation of the one Who claims That Magic Can Be Cured by Magic:

- 1 Removing magic with magic is in opposition to the Qur'ān and the Sunnah and what the companions and the righteous predecessors (may Allāh be pleased with all of them) were upon.
- 2 It weakens one's resolve in using the Quran and the authentic supplications ('ad'iyah) reported in the prophetic tradition.
- 3 It bolsters the position of magicians and magic in the eyes of the lay people.
- 4 It impedes the certainty of seeking treatment with the Qur'ān and the authentic supplications ('ad'iyah) and replaces it with the superstition found in magic.
- 5 To remove the magic from the afflicted person [using magic], requires the practitioner and the afflicted to indulge in that which pleases shayṭān.
- 6 If the one afflicted by magic is patient, then he is rewarded with Jannah as mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ.
- 7 Curing magic by magic increases the hold of the magician over the afflicted.
- 8 When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was afflicted by the magic, he never sought treatment with by magic, but rather he used the Ruqyah Ash Shar'iyyah (legislated healing).

The Eighth Nullifier:

Providing backing or support to the polytheists and aiding them against the Muslims; the evidence of which is the saying of Allāh, the Most High: “O you who believe! Take not the Jews and the Christians as Auliya’ (friends, protectors, helpers, etc.), they are but Auliya’ to one another. And if any amongst you takes them as Auliya’, then surely he is one of them. Verily, Allāh guides not those people who are the Zālimūn (polytheists and wrong-doers and unjust)” [5:51]

Supporting The Disbelievers Against The Believers:

It is obligatory upon every Muslim to dissociate themselves from the polytheists and their religion and [instead] love their religion and ally themselves with the people of monotheism (Tawhīd). Therefore, whoever loves disbelief or is pleased with it or supports it [against monotheism] and helps the polytheists [against the Muslims], has disbelieved - major disbelief (Al Kufr al-Akbar), which removes one from the fold of Islām.

Supporting the polytheists [against the Muslims]; therefore, falls into two categories:

Disbelief which Invalidates One's Islām:

That is to ally with the polytheists against the Muslims out of love for them and hate for the Muslims, with a desire that they overpower the Muslims.

Disbelief That Does Not Invalidate One's Islām:

This is where the assistance is done without love for the polytheists and hatred for the Muslims but is instead done for some worldly gain.

The Ninth Nullifier:

Whoever believes that some people are exempt from following the laws (sharī'ah) of Muḥammad ﷺ, just as al-Khaḍīr was exempt from the laws (sharī'ah) of Mūsā, is a disbeliever.

Those who believe that some people are exempt from following the way (sharī'ah) of Muḥammad ﷺ

Whoever believes that some people are excused from following the way of Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, has disbelieved and their disbelief is major disbelief (Al Kufr al-Akbar), which removes one from the fold of Islām, as is in accordance with scholarly consensus (ijmā'). And he will be asked to repent after clear evidence are shown to him and if he still believes, he may be subject to punishment by an [officially recognised] Islamic court.

The Most High says: "Say (Oh Muhammad ﷺ): "Oh mankind! Verily, I am sent to you ALL as the Messenger of Allāh" [7:158]

And the Prophet ﷺ said: «If my brother Mūsā was alive today, he would have no choice but to follow me».

This includes the people of the book who received the message, who are polytheists, as was mentioned previously. Furthermore, whether al-Khaḍīr departed from the way of Mūsā has not been established and even if it was established, it is possible that he was not from the community that Mūsā [was sent to], as the prophets were all sent to their people respectively, whereas our Prophet ﷺ was sent to humanity collectively, and therefore no one can depart from his sharī'ah.

The Tenth Nullifier:

Disregarding the religion of Allāh, by neither learning it nor acting upon it. And the evidence of this is the Saying of Allāh, the Most High: “And who does more wrong than he who is reminded of the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, signs, revelations, etc.) of his Lord, then he turns away there from? Verily, We shall exact retribution from the Mujrimūn (disbelievers, polytheists, sinners, etc.)” [32:22]

Disregarding the Religion of Allāh:

The Prophet ﷺ said: «Whomsoever Allāh wants good for, Allāh gives him comprehension of the Religion (i.e., Islām)». And the one whom Allāh does not want good, he abandons and becomes heedless of learning the religion of Allāh. The Most High says: “And who does more wrong than he who is reminded of the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) of his Lord, then he turns aside therefrom? Verily, We shall exact retribution from the Mujrimūn (criminals, disbelievers, polytheists, sinners, etc.)” [32:22] And the Mujrimūn (criminals, disbelievers, polytheists, sinners, rejecters, etc.) are the inhabitants of the Hellfire, and Allāh’s refuge is sought.

The Ruling Concerning the One Who Disregards [learning One’s religion]:

If one’s disregard is with their hearing and heart, so much so that they neither believe the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, nor deny him; neither do they demonstrate their loyalty, nor do they show enmity and they have total disregard with what he came with, then they have disbelieved and their disbelief is major disbelief (Al Kufr al-Akbar), which removes one from the fold of Islām.

The Most High said: “And when it is said to them, “Come to what Allāh has revealed and to the Messenger (Muhammed ﷺ),” you (Muhammed ﷺ) see the hypocrites turning away from you in aversion.” [4:61]

And He said: “And whoever turns away from the remembrance of his Lord, He will cause him to enter in a severe punishment.” [72:17]

The Author's Conclusion:

There is no difference, with respect to [the commission of] these nullifiers, regarding the one who mocks (al-hāzil), the one who is deliberate (al-Jādd) and the one who is fearful (al-khā'if). The exception to this is the one who is under duress (al-mukrah). And all of these [nullifiers] are of the most dangerous matters and the most common in occurrence. Hence, a Muslim should be cautious about them and fear [falling into them]. We seek refuge with Allāh from the causes of His wrath and His severe punishment.

May the peace and blessing of Allāh be on the best of His creation, Muhammad ﷺ and on his family and companions.

There Is No Difference Between Any of The Nullifiers

The Mocker:

Is the one who commits the nullification and claims he did so in jest.

The Deliberate:

Is the one who commits the nullification deliberately with no excuse.

The Fearful:

Is the one who commits the nullification out of fear for his wealth or social status, even though he was not forced to do so. The Most High says: "And of mankind are some who say: 'We believe in Allāh,' but if they are made to suffer for the sake of Allāh, they consider the trial of mankind as Allāh's punishment, and if victory comes from your Lord, (the hypocrites) will say: 'Verily! We were with you (helping you).' Is not Allāh Best Aware of what is in the breast of the 'Ālamīn (mankind and jinns)' [29:10]

Compulsion:

If someone was truly forced to commit an invalidator, he would not be considered a disbeliever. For compulsion to be excused, it must satisfy these conditions:

1. They are genuinely compelled, because there is no excuse for the one who is not under compulsion, like the one who is fearful.
2. He should not transgress - For example, if he is forced to curse once (i.e., a curse that would cause him to disbelieve) and he exceeded that, then this is disbelief, since he was only compelled to curse once.
3. He should resist and not declare disbelief as much as he can.
4. His heart should be content with faith, meaning he should utter with his tongue while imān (faith) remains in his heart.
5. Whatever he is forced to do should not transgress on others, or cause corruption, or be a cause of misguidance for others.

Very Important Clarifications:

FIRST: The author did not intend by authoring this book to proclaim takfir, (i.e., proclaiming a Muslim to be a disbeliever) of the Ummah, rather his intention was to teach the people, so they are cautious and fear [falling into] them (i.e., the nullifiers).

Since if they were to fear them, they would have rectified their imān (faith) and saved themselves from a great punishment. It is also incumbent upon them to warn others about them due to their great danger. [Moreover], it is imperative they are learned and consciously feared.

SECOND: A Muslim's fear of shirk is realised by learning Islamic knowledge, the Prophet ﷺ said: «Whomsoever Allāh wants good, Allāh gives him comprehension of the Religion (i.e., Islām) ». Therefore, religious comprehension is from the greatest of obligations and the most honourable. Through it, one is able to fortify himself against shirk, bid'ah (innovation) and ma'siya (sin). And the more a person's knowledge of their Lord increases the more he is mindful that Allāh is aware of his actions and condition. Additionally, the more a person grows in knowledge, the more a person increases in sincerity for Allāh and perfects their imān,

It was said by some of the people of knowledge, "We sought knowledge for other than Allāh; but it refused, except that it be sought for the sake of Allāh".

THIRD: It is not permitted to proclaim takfir on a specific individual, except after confirmation and establishing firm evidence of them falling into one of the nullifiers, together with a verification that none of the excuses may be applicable [to them]. [Even if these are all satisfied], only recognised and officially appointed Muslim Authorities, or those appointed from the Official Judiciary can make such a proclamation. As for the general public, it is not permitted to them to indulge in these matters.

FOURTH: The author (may Allāh have mercy on him) concludes his book with the following supplication: «We seek refuge in Allāh from that which necessitates his anger and his painful punishment». And this reflects his good intention and his concern and kindness for the reader, and this was his habit in all of his writings.

May Allāh have mercy on him and forgive him and grant him a generous reward.
